RECORD-SETTING SIX SEASONS (2011-16)

Clemson has a 68-13 record over the last six years, the second most victories in college football. Only Alabama has more with 75. Ohio State and Florida State are tied for third with 67 apiece.

Clemson has six straight seasons of at least 10 wins, and only Alabama can also say that. The Tigers have more than 10 wins in four of those six seasons. Overall, just eight schools have at least 60 wins over the last six years.

MOST BCS OR NEW YEARS SIX BOWLS SINCE 2011

Clemson's appearance in the 2016 PlayStation Fiesta Bowl will be the fourth time in the last six years the Tigers have been to a BCS or Playoff Six Bowl. These are considered to be the "Major Bowls" of those seasons.

Alabama leads the way with six appearances in those six years, while Florida State is second with five. The Tigers, Stanford and Ohio State have all been to six including the 2016 bowl games.

Clemson went to the Orange Bowl three times, 2011, 2013 and 2015. The Tigers are 2-1 so far in these "major bowls".

CLEMSON GETS SIXTH STRAIGHT 10-WIN SEASON

The victory for Clemson over Wake Forest gave the Tigers a 10-1 record and assure Clemson of a sixth straight season with at least 10 victories. Clemson is just the 11th different school in college football history (current FBS schools) to have six consecutive seasons of at least 10 wins.

Heading into this season Clemson and Alabama were the only schools with an active streak of at least five 10-win seasons. The Crimson Tide are also primed to extend their streak, which is eight consecutive years entering this season.

The record for consecutive 10-win seasons is 14 years in a row set by Bobby Bowden's Florida State Seminoles (1987-02). The win over South Carolina gave Clemson 11 wins this season, just the sixth 11 win season in school history. Four of the six have come under Dabo Swinney.

THE 2010s, WINNINGEST IN CLEMSON HISTORY

With a 12-1 record, Clemson now has a 74-20 record in the decade of the 2010s. That computes to a .787 winning percentage, the best for any decade in Clemson history. This decade has moved ahead of the 1980s in terms of winning percentage.

In the 1980s, Clemson had a .767 winning percentage off an 87-25-4 record, the fifth best winning percentage in college football. Clemson did not have a losing season in any year in the 1980s under head coach Danny Ford, who coached every game in that decade. So far Dabo Swinney has coached every game in the decade of the 2010s.

TOP 25 TEAMS EACH OF LAST FIVE YEARS

Clemson has finished each of the last five seasons in the top 25 of both polls. Clemson, Alabama, Oregon and Florida State are the only schools in the nation to finish in the top 25 of both polls every year since 2011. That includes a top 15 or better final ranking each of the last four years when the Tigers have had a 46-8 record, the best four year mark in Clemson history.

Clemson is a lock for another top 25 this season, as are Alabama and Florida State. Oregon will not be in a bowl and drop of the list.

School	2011 AP-US	2012 AP-US	2013 AP-US	2014 AP-US	2015 AP-US
Clemson	22-22	11-9	8-7	15-15	12-2

Oregon	4-4	2-2	9-9	2-2	19-20
Florida State	23-23	10-8	1-1	5-6	14-14

EXCEEDING EXPECTATIONS

Clemson has at least matched its preseason ranking in the USA Today coaches poll each of the last five years. That is becoming more and more difficult to accomplish in light of some high preseason rankings in recent years. This year the only way Clemson might do it is if the Tigers play for the National Championship. Below is a chart of Clemson's preseason and postseason ranking in each poll since 2011.

Dabo Swinney has joined Bill Snyder of Kansas State and John Cooper of Ohio State as the only coaches in history to lead a team to the same or better AP post-season ranking than its AP preseason ranking five consecutive years since preseason polls began in 1950.

EXCELLING ON FIELD AND IN CLASSROOM

Clemson is the only school in the nation to rank in the top 10 percent of APR scores (four-year averages) and in the final top 25 of both polls each of the last five years. The streak of top 25 final rankings on the field includes four straight years of top 15 final rankings by AP and USA Today. Clemson was second on the field and tied for 11th in APR scores in 2015-16 academic year.

PERSONNEL OVERVIEW

Clemson has advanced to the College Football Playoff for the second consecutive year thanks to a team that features great balance on both sides of the ball. Clemson ranks in the top 20 in the nation in terms of total offense and defense, scoring offense and defense, and passing offense and defense.

It is a team that has run to a 12-1 record thanks to clutch play on both sides of the ball as well. In wins over Louisville and Florida State, quarterback Deshaun Watson connected with tight end Jordan Leggett for what proved to be winning touchdowns in the fourth period. Defensively, winning plays were turned in by defensive back Marcus Edmond in wins over Louisville and NC State. His interception in the endzone on the Wolfpack's possession in overtime gave the Tigers a walk-off victory.

Clemson has a 6-1 record in games decided by seven points or less this year (17-3 since 2011) and that ties a school record for the most wins by seven or less in a season. The 1948 team was 6-0 in close games. Despite this many close games, Clemson has a scoring margin of +21.8 points per game, seventh best in the nation.

Seven Clemson players (Deshaun Watson, Jordan Leggett, Mike Williams, Christian Wilkins, Carlos Watkins, Ben Boulware and Cordrea Tankersley) all made at least second-team All-American by a service, the most different players to make an All-America team in school history. The Tigers also feature a league high nine first-team All-ACC players and 16 over the three teams selected, more than any other school in the conference. Five Tigers on offense were first team All-ACC, while four on defense were named to the top team.

Dabo Swinney's team has been ranked in the top four of the College Football Playoff poll for each of the last two years (12 straight polls) and has been ranked in the top five of the Associated Press poll for 23 consecutive polls, the longest active streak in the nation.

This is the sixth consecutive year Clemson has won at least 10 games, something only Alabama can also claim. The Tigers are 68-13 over that time, second only to Alabama in total wins (75). The Tigers are a lock for a sixth straight top 25 finish, something only Alabama and Florida State can match. The Tigers have won the ACC Championship three of the last six years, including consecutive years for the first time since the 1986-88.

Clemson is 29-2 over its last 31 games dating to the last three games of the 2014 season. The two losses are by just five points to Alabama in 2015 season National title game and to Pittsburgh this year, a 43-42 loss on a 48-yard field goal on the last play of the game. Clemson has played well away from home the last two years, winning all 10 games on the opponent's home field and 13 of 14 away from home including neutral sites.

Clemson has three wins over ranked teams (time of the game) this year, including No. 3 Louisville by a 42-36 score at Memorial Stadium. It gives the program seven wins over top 25 teams and four over top 10 teams the last two years. (Clemson also has a win over an Auburn team that was not ranked at the time of the game, but is in the top 20 now).

OFFENSE

The Clemson offense ranks 13th in the nation in total offense, seventh in the nation in passing offense and 15th in scoring offense. The unit has converted on third down .515 of the time, sixth best in the nation and the best by any Clemson team since the 1978 team finished at .516. The team averages 40.2 points and 505.5 yards per game, on pace to become just the third team in Clemson history to average at least 40 points and 500 yards per game.

Deshaun Watson is the quarterback and has posted a 30-3 record as a starter over the last three years, the best winning percentage in Clemson history and just two total wins from tying the school record (32, Rodney Williams and Tajh Boyd). The Clemson graduate

(Dec. 15) has completed .676 of his passes this season (329-487) for 3,914 yards and a school record 37 touchdown passes. He needs just three TD passes to tie Jameis Winston's ACC mark of 40 touchdown passes in 2013.

Watson is also second on the team in rushing with 526 yards and six scores, giving him 43 touchdowns in terms of touchdown responsibility this year. He had a school record 47 touchdowns last year, meaning he has had 90 touchdowns rushing and passing over the last two years, and 107 for his career, second among active FBS quarterbacks.

The ACC's first two-time Heisman finalist, Watson actually has better stats against Power Five opponents because he was pulled from many games due to large leads against other teams. Against Power Five teams he has completed .692 of his passes for 3,470 yards and 31 touchdowns. He is second in the nation in passing yards against Power Five teams and fourth in touchdowns passes.

A year ago Watson became the first quarterback in FBS history to throw for at least 4,000 yards and rush for at least 1,000 and led the Tigers to the National Championship game. He threw for 405 and ran for 73 against an Alabama defense that finished the season No. 3 in the nation in total defense.

Nick Schuessler has been an effective backup to Watson this year and has completed 22-32 passes for 328 yards and three scores. In fact, his passing efficiency of 185.9 is higher than Watson's 154.0.

As a team, Clemson has thrown for 41 touchdowns, already a school record and the 4,324 passing yards to rank second in school history, but first on a yards per game (332.6) basis.

Wayne Gallman is the top Clemson rusher with 1,002 yards and 15 touchdowns. It is his second straight 1,000-yard season and he is just the sixth Clemson back to have two 1,000-yard seasons in a career. He also set the career record for 100-yard rushing games and the Tigers are 17-0 over his career when he rushes for at least 100 yards. He has five 100-yard games this year, including 123 vs. Auburn, 110 vs. Louisville and a season-high 161 against Wake Forest.

In five games vs. teams ranked in the most recent AP poll Gallman has scored eight touchdowns rushing, more than any other FBS player in the nation against top 25 teams. Over the last two years he has 214 carries for 1,006 yards and 13 touchdowns in 10 games against top 25 teams.

Gallman rushed for 150 yards and two scores in the College Football Playoff Semifinal against Oklahoma in the Orange Bowl last year and finished with a school record 1,527 yards in the 15 games. The native of Loganville, Georgia is fifth in school history in career rushing yards with 3,298.

Tavien Feaster (209 yards), C.J. Fuller (205), Adam Choice (142) and Tyshon Dye (109) have all seen time as Gallman's backup over the course of the season.

Clemson has a deep and experienced receiving corps. The top six receivers have combined for 709 receptions for 9,236 yards and 83 touchdowns. Four of the top 14 players in Clemson history in terms of touchdown receptions are on this team.

All-American Mike Williams leads the team with 84 receptions for 1,171 yards and 10 scores. Like Watson, he has recorded most of his numbers against Power Five Conference Teams. Against Power Five opposition, Williams has 79 receptions (second most in the nation), 1,103 yards (third) and 10 touchdowns (fifth).

For his career, Williams has 163 receptions for 2,537 yards, fifth in school history. He has nine 100-yard games for his career, third best in school history. He has five 100-yard games in 2016, including a 15 catch for 202 yards performance against Pittsburgh. He closed his regular season home career against South Carolina with a three-touchdown performance and 100 yards receiving in just the first half. He became the first

Clemson receiver with three touchdown catches against the Gamecocks.

Artavis Scott has 240 receptions, tied for the all-time record with Sammy Watkins, who ironically played his final game as a Tiger against Ohio State in the 2014 Orange Bowl. Scott has 71 receptions for 592 yards and five touchdowns. He scored what proved to be the winning touchdown against NC State on a TD reception from Watson, and had the biggest special teams play of the year when his 77-yard kickoff return against Louisville changed the momentum of the game in Clemson's favor in the fourth quarter.

The native of Florida who like Watson graduated in just three years, has 19 career touchdown receptions to rank fifth in school history and has 2,459 receiving yards, eighth best in school history. He needs just 41 receiving yards against Ohio State to become the seventh player at Clemson with 2,500 receiving yards.

Ray-Ray McCloud is third on the team in receiving, but has started just five games. The sophomore has 45 receptions for 443 yards and two scores. He also led Clemson in punt return yards with 176 this season.

Deon Cain has not started a game, but in 13 games as a reserve behind Mike Williams has 32 receptions for 621 yards and nine scores. That gives that receiver position 19 touchdown receptions for the year. Cain averages a team best 19.4 yards per reception. Among players with at least 30 receptions, Cain is 11th in the nation in yards per catch. The sophomore already has 14 career touchdown receptions on 66 career catches.

Hunter Renfrow was one of the great stories of the Clemson team last year when the original walk-on had two touchdown catches against Alabama in the National Championship game. He finished the night with a career high seven receptions for 88 yards.

This year, Renfrow missed four games with an injury, but has been productive when healthy, and has 29 receptions for 353 yards and four scores. His backwards touchdown catch was a key to the win at Auburn.

Cornell Powell moves up the depth chart with an injury to Trevion Thompson, who will miss the bowl game. Powell, a true freshman, has 12 catches for 87 yards.

Jordan Leggett is a record setting tight end who was a finalist for the Mackey Award each of the last two seasons, a first in Clemson history. The graduate from Navarre, Fla., has 38 catches for 637 yards and seven scores. He scored what proved to be the winning touchdowns against Louisville and Florida State. He had four catches for 70 yards on Clemson's fourth quarter winning drive at Tallahassee.

Leggett holds just about every Clemson tight end receiving record. That includes career receptions (104), receiving yards (1,499) and touchdowns (18). Other tight ends who will see action are Milan Richard, Garrett Williams and Cannon Smith.

Clemson had three of the five first-team players on the on the All-ACC offensive line chosen by the ACC Sports Media, a first in Clemson history. The group is led by center Jay Guillermo, a first-team selection this year and second team last year. He has started all 13 games this year and 27 over Clemson's incredible two-year run. Guillermo has been named ACC Offensive Lineman of the Week four times in his career.

Tackle Mitch Hyatt also was named first-team All-ACC by the ACC media. The sophomore has started 27 over the last two years. He improved from third-team All-ACC as a freshman to first-team last year. He is the nephew of former Clemson All-ACC defensive tackle Dan Benish, who was a starter on Clemson's 1981 National Championship team.

Guard Tyrone Crowder is the third first-team All-ACC offensive lineman for the Tigers. He is also finishing his second full season as a starter. He was a third-team All-ACC selection in 2015 and has 26 career starts on two ACC Championship teams. Taylor Hearn (guard) and Sean Pollard (tackle) are two young linemen in the Clemson lineup in their first years as starters.

PERSONNEL OVERVIEW

DEFENSE

Brent Venables won the Broyles Award this year as the top assistant coach in the nation, and he has done another outstanding job taking on an assignment that includes few returning starters.

The Tiger defense had to replace seven starters from the 2015 team, including six who are on NFL rosters in 2016. Despite the losses, Clemson is ninth in the nation in total defense, 12th in scoring defense, third in sacks and third in tackles for loss. There is an All-American player at each line of defense.

Clemson is among the national leaders in terms of tackles for loss for the fifth straight year. The Tigers have 112 tackles for loss so far, second to Michigan's 114, and now have 591 over the last five years, most in the nation. In fact, Clemson has at least 100 more tackles for loss than 125 of the other 127 FBS teams over the last five years.

As usual it has been a balanced defensive effort as 23 different players have a tackle for loss and 16 different players have recorded a sack. The Tigers have 46 sacks to rank third in the nation and need just three more to establish a school record. The defense also has 18 interceptions to rank seventh nationally and has forced 24 turnovers to rank 20th.

Dan Brooks, the AFCA National Assistant Coach of the Year, and veteran coach and former NFL player Marion Hobby, mentor the defensive line. They have a young, but talented front four that has accounted for 40.5 tackles for loss.

Clemson's front four was one of the most decorated in college football in 2016. Defensive end Christian Wilkins was a Nagurski Award finalist and a first-team All-American according to the Football Writers Association and AFCA. Tackle Carlos Watkins was a first-team All-American by CBS Sports and second-team selection by the Associated Press. Tackle Dexter Lawrence was a first-team freshman All-American by USA Today and ESPN.

Wilkins led the Clemson team in tackles for loss with 12, and has 52 total tackles. He also has 17 quarterback pressures. Additionally, Wilkins was a force on special teams, where he had a 10-yard run on a fake punt, and blocked a kick. He also caught a touchdown pass from Deshaun Watson in the win over Troy, the first Clemson defensive lineman to score an offensive touchdown in school history.

Watkins, a graduate on December 15, leads the team in sacks (8.5), the most by a Clemson defensive tackle since 1990 and just 1.5 off the record held by William Perry (1984) and Michael Dean Perry (1987). The two-time first-team All-ACC selection has 70 tackles, 10.5 tackles for loss and 12 quarterback pressures.

Lawrence, a freshman and starter in nine games, has 74 stops to lead all defensive linemen. He leads the team in quarterback pressures (20) and his seven sacks have tied a freshman record held by Michael Dean Perry (1984) and Chester McGlockton (1989). He has added two blocked kicks and two fumble recoveries.

The other front four starter is Clelin Ferrell and his starts are no less impressive, especially for a red-shirt freshman. He has started all 13 games, has 43 tackles, including 8.5 for loss and five sacks. He has 19 quarterback pressures to rank second on the team.

Austin Bryant is a defensive end who missed the first six games of the year with an injury, but picked up 13 tackles and three tackles for loss. He had eight tackles in the win over Oklahoma last year when Shaq Lawson was injured early. Scott Pagano is a defensive tackle who started four games and is coming off an injury, but will be ready for the Ohio State game. He had 27 tackles in 10 games this year.

Clemson's top two linebackers lead the Tiger tackle chart according to the coaches film. Ben Boulware enters the playoffs with 114, including nine tackles for loss, while Kendall Joseph has 107, including 10 behind the line of scrimmage, third on the team.

Boulware was named a second-team All-American by five services this year and was named the ACC Co-Defensive Player of the Year according to the league's coaches. The native of nearby Anderson had 17 tackles, including three for loss, in the win over Louisville and was named the National Defensive Player of the Week by four different services.

Joseph, a sophomore, was honorable mention All-ACC by the ACC Sports Media and is a star of the future. After missing almost all of 2015 with an injury, he was one of the players who stepped up to bring the Tigers back into the top 10 nationally on the defensive side of the ball. He led Clemson in tackles four times, including 14 in the season opening win at Auburn.

The third starting linebacker is Dorian O'Daniel. The junior from Maryland had 53 tackles this season in 13 games, 10 as a starter. He had nine tackles for loss, including 2.5 sacks and an interception.

Clemson's fine play in the secondary was a big reason the Tigers enter the postseason ranked fifth in the nation in pass efficiency defense, 12th in completion percentage defense, seventh in interceptions and eighth in yards per attempt allowed.

Cornerback Cordrea Tankersley is considered a first-round NFL draft prospect and was a first-team All-American by USA Today and a third-team pick by AP. He has 55 tackles to rank sixth on the team, but he had 46 first hits, fourth on the squad. Week after week he was assigned the toughest opposing receiver.

The native of Beech Island, S.C., has three interceptions for the year, but a team best 10 pass breakups. Two of his interceptions came in the ACC Championship win over Virginia Tech.

Jadar Johnson is another graduate who made first-team All-ACC this year. He was the only Tiger to go from a reserve last year to first-team All-ACC in 2016. The native of Orangeburg, S.C. had 50 tackles, a team best five interceptions and seven passes broken up for 12 total passes defended.

Van Smith and Ryan Carter complete the Clemson secondary that allowed just 12 touchdown passes all year, 14th best in the nation. Smith is a safety who had 102 tackles off the coaches film, including six tackles for loss. He had at least 13 tackles in wins over Troy, Louisville and Boston College and had at least seven stops in 10 of the 13 games.

Carter stepped in at cornerback after Mackensie Alexander left for the NFL early. He contributed 26 tackles, including 23 first hits, 5.5 tackles for loss and seven pass breakups, plus an interception.

Marcus Edmond is a cornerback who started three games and might have contributed the two biggest defensive plays of the year. In the final minute of the Louisville game, he made a fourth-down stop of a Cardinal wide receiver inside the 10-yard-line, one yard short of a first down. Clemson then ran out the clock. He added a game-ending interception in overtime to end the NC State game two weeks later.

Mark Fields is another young cornerback who has made some big plays this year, including a 42-yard interception return for a touchdown at Boston College.

SPECIAL TEAMS

Clemson is improved on special teams in many areas, including kick coverage. A year ago Clemson was one of two teams to allow three kickoff returns for touchdowns, including one in the National Championship game. This year, Clemson opponents have not had a TD return and have averaged just 19.1 yards per run back, 37th in the nation. That is up from 116th in kickoff return coverage in 2015.

The Tigers have allowed just 44 punt return yards all season with a long of 16 yards. Clemson is +215 in punt return yards this year and the 259 total punt return yards are the most since 2010. Punter Andy Teasdale has just four touchbacks and 18 punts inside the 20.

In terms of defending returns, Chad Smith has 10 special teams tackles to lead the team, while Tanner Muse has nine. Muse also has a 64-yard interception return for a touchdown, longest of the year by a Clemson defender.

Greg Huegel made second-team All-ACC according to the ACC Sports Media and has made 13-17 field goals this year and 40-49 for his career. He is third in Clemson history in field goal percentage. He has 36 touchbacks on 85 kickoffs and has allowed just 19 yards per return.

BOWL NOTES

CLEMSON SELECTED FOR COLLEGE FOOTBALL PLAYOFF

ACC champion Clemson will face Ohio State in the College Football Playoff in the PlayStation Fiesta Bowl on December 31 in Glendale, Ariz. The contest will kick off at 7 p.m., Eastern time on the New Year's Eve date and will be televised nationally by ESPN.

Clemson was ranked second in the final College Football Playoff Poll released on December 3, while Ohio State was ranked third. The teams had been ranked in reverse order in the previous poll, but the Tigers won the ACC Championship with a 42-35 win over Virginia Tech, while the 11-1 Buckeyes were idle.

Clemson will enter the postseason with a 12-1 record after winning the ACC title for the 16th time, the second year in a row on Saturday. It marks the first time Clemson has won a conference championship in consecutive years since 1988.

Clemson's schedule included 11 games against bowl teams with 10 of the contests resulting in a Tiger victory, including six away from home. Clemson leads the nation in games and wins over teams in bowl games with at least six wins this year.

This will be the third meeting between Clemson and Ohio State. The Tigers have won the previous two, a 17-15 win in the 1978 Gator Bowl, and the 40-35 win in the 2013 season Orange Bowl. Those are two of the landmark victories in Clemson history. Ohio State was ranked seventh by AP entering the 2014 Orange Bowl and 20th entering the 1978 game in Jacksonville. It was the first win over a Big Ten team by the Tigers at the time.

As far as strength of schedule, Clemson opponents are 76-46 this year when not playing Clemson, a .623 mark, third best in the nation. Ohio State opponents have a .625 winning percentage when not playing the Buckeyes this year, second best in the nation. Urban Meyer is first in terms of winning percentage among active FBS coaches (.855), while Swinney is seventh (.757).

The semifinal meeting will be a battle of teams that excel on both sides of the football. Clemson is 15th in the nation in scoring offense (40.2) and 12th in scoring defense (18.4). Clemson is also 13th in total offense (505.7) and ninth in total defense (314). Ohio State is ninth in scoring offense at 42.7 points per game and third in scoring defense, allowing just 14.2 points per game. The Buckeyes average 480 yards per game and give up just 282 yards per game. Both teams rank in the top seven in the nation in scoring margin.

The two teams have experienced quarterbacks. Clemson's Deshaun Watson is fifth in the nation in touchdown passes with a school record 37, and is sixth in total passing yards with 3,914. He is also in the top 10 in the nation in completion percentage (9th) and completions per game (7th). He is also eighth in total offense with 342 yards per game.

Ohio State quarterback J.T. Barrett has completed 62 percent of his passes this year for 24 touchdowns and he has had 10 rushing scores. Both quarterbacks have accounted for at least 100 touchdowns rushing and passing and have both finished in the top five of the Heisman Trophy race.

1978 GATOR BOWL REVIEW

December 29, 1978

At Jacksonville, FL

Clemson 17, Ohio State 15

Danny Ford made his Clemson debut as head coach in grand style with a 17-15 victory over Ohio State and coaching legend Woody Hayes to close the 1978 season. The victory gave the Tigers a final record of 11-1, tying the school record (at the time) for victories in a season. With the win Clemson finished tied for sixth with a Joe Montana led Notre Dame team in the UPI Coaches poll, and sixth all alone by Associated Press.

Ford had been named head coach of the Tigers on December 10 after Charley Pell had resigned as head coach to lead the Florida program. Ford was just 30 years old at the time, the youngest head coach in the nation. He would go on to coach Clemson to the 1981 National Championship at the age of 33, still the youngest head coach to win the national championship.

While Clemson had a young coach on the sideline, it had an old quarterback by college standards on the field. Steve Fuller, a third-team All-America on the field and first-team Academic All-American, was in his third year as a starter and ran the offense efficiently. The native of Spartanburg, SC who would be in the inaugural class of Football Players inducted into the school's Ring of Honor in 1994, ran a Tigers offense that had just one turnover in 80 plays.

Fuller engineered an 80-yard 15-play drive and finished it off with a four-yard run to give Clemson a 7-3 lead in the second period. Ohio State's Art Schlichter, then a freshman, guided the Buckeyes to a touchdown drive with just 1:21 left in the half, but the extra point was blocked, making the score, 9-7.

But, the Tigers drove down field behind Fuller passes to the Ohio State 30 and Obed Ariri kicked a 47-yard field goal to put Clemson up 10-9 at the half.

Clemson scored the only points of the third period on a one-yard run by freshman Cliff Austin. It completed an 83-yard drive that took 18 plays. Three years later Austin would also score an important touchdown in Clemson's victory over Nebraska in the 1982 Orange Bowl.

With 8:11 left and Clemson holding a 17-9 lead, Schlichter scored his second touchdown of the game to bring Ohio State to within two points. Ohio State went for the tie, but Jim Stuckey tackled Schlichter on a quarterback sweep to prevent the score and put Clemson up, 17-15.

Ohio State got the ball back after a failed Clemson drive. Faced with a third-and-five at the Clemson 24, second-team Tigers middle guard Charlie Bauman intercepted Schlichter when he dropped in coverage. It would be the only interception of Bauman's four-year career and the only turnover of the night for the Ohio State offense.

On the return he was run out of bounds in front of the Ohio State bench. There was a scuffle that involve Ohio State head coach Hayes, and unsportsmanlike conduct penalties on consecutive plays were called on Ohio State, giving Clemson excellent field position. Clemson ran out the clock from there, giving Clemson its first win over a Big Ten school.

Bubba Brown was the star of the Clemson defense with 22 tackles, still a school record for tackles in a bowl game. He remains Clemson's career leader in tackles. Randy Scott added 16 and Jim Stuckey had 11 to key the Clemson defense that ranked fifth in the nation in scoring defense and 15th in total defense that season.

LAST MEETING

2014 Orange Bowl, Miami Gardens, Fla
Clemson 40, Ohio State 35

Brent Venables bristled a bit earlier in the week when he was asked about the Orange Bowl against #6 Ohio State being billed as a shootout.

While the final score, 40-35 in favor of #11 Clemson, may have indicated that was the case, its defensive coordinator could smile afterward knowing his unit made the plays that were the difference.

The Tigers forced four second-half turnovers, including a fumble and interception on the Buckeyes' last two possessions, to rally from a halftime deficit for a BCS bowl win and a second-straight 11-win season, both firsts in school history.

Stephone Anthony's interception with 1:18 left sealed the win after Clemson had turned the ball over on the previous possession to give Ohio State an opening. That came after a Spencer Shuey fumble recovery on the previous Buckeyes' drive that put the Tigers in the driver's seat.

"That was fun to watch," said Venables. "Just as you draw it up, those guys go out and execute it. To see those guys do that on back-to-back series, it was special."

It was not all defense for Clemson, as Sammy Watkins set Tiger and Orange Bowl records with 16 catches and 227 receiving yards to garner MVP honors, and Tajh Boyd accounted for 505 yards of total offense and six scores.

"The biggest thing going into this game was that we were going to win or lose the game through #10 (Watkins) or #2 (Boyd)," stated Swinney. "That was the plan."

Watkins, who had eight catches for 130 yards in the first half, passed Aaron Kelly to become the school's all-time leader in receptions with his first grab of the second half, which gave him 233 for his career.

For Boyd, he moved into a tie with Rodney Williams (1985-88) for most wins in school history by a starting quarterback with 32 and also set the record for most wins over top-25 ranked teams with eight, including five victories over top-10 foes.

The first half had the feeling of missed opportunities for Clemson. In the second half, the Tigers made sure they did not miss another.

Despite outgaining Ohio State by 108 yards and largely dominating the game on both sides of the ball, the Tigers trailed at halftime 22-20.

That was thanks in part to an array of miscues that included an interception near the goal line, a turnover on downs that led to a touchdown, a Buckeye drive that was extended twice after Clemson forced fourth down, a safety for intentional grounding in the endzone, and a missed extra point.

But the Tigers cashed in on two third-quarter turnovers by the Buckeyes, as Watkins and Martavis Bryant made acrobatic catches in the endzone to put Clemson on top entering the fourth quarter.

Stanton Seckinger put Clemson ahead for good with a five-yard catch from Boyd with 6:16 left in the game, and Shuey and Anthony's takeaways finished Ohio State off.

Things looked bleak for the Tigers after Ohio State stretched its lead to 29-20 and got another stop on third down to open the second half.

Clemson finally got the break it had been so desperately seeking after its offense had been forced to punt on the next drive, as Corey Brown muffed a punt and Robert Smith was there to recover the loose ball at the Ohio State 33. "The spark was the punt return fumble," explained Swinney. "We were down. We were -1 in the turnover margin, and that was a huge thing. When we win the turnover margin, we win. That's just the way it is for us."

The Tigers cashed in three plays later, as Watkins went up and made an acrobatic catch in the endzone for a 30-yard touchdown that narrowed Ohio State's lead to 29-27. Watkins tied Clemson's career record for touchdown catches with his 27th on the play.

The Tiger defense kept the momentum going on the ensuing drive. On third-and-eight, pressure flushed Braxton Miller out of the pocket and his pass to the sideline was intercepted by Jayron Kearsa to give Clemson the ball at the Ohio State 38.

Four plays later, Boyd and Bryant hooked up on a fade route again, as Bryant hauled in a juggling catch in the corner of the endzone to put the Tigers back on top 34-29 with 32 seconds left in the third quarter. The Buckeyes regained the lead on a 14-yard pass from Miller to Carlos Hyde to make the score 35-34 with 11:35 left in the game.

The Tigers went back in front on the five-yard grab by Seckinger, who Boyd found wide open for the touchdown. The score put Clemson on top 40-35 with 6:16 remaining.

With the Buckeyes facing third-and-13 on the ensuing drive, Bashaud Breeland crashed in on a corner blitz and hit Miller, the ball popped loose, and Shuey snatched it out of the air at the Ohio State 47.

The Tigers gave the ball right back, as Ohio State came up with an interception three plays later, but Anthony picked Miller off two plays later to get the ball back for Clemson and seal the win.

WATSON WINNER OF HARLEY AND UNITAS AWARDS

Clemson quarterback Deshaun Watson captured two national awards in the first full week of December. He was named the winner of the 2016 Chic Harley Award by the Touchdown Club of Columbus, Ohio. The award has been presented each year since 1955 to the National Player of the Year through the conference championship weekend.

He then won the Unitas Award as the top senior quarterback of college football. The award is presented each year by the Golden Arm Foundation to the top senior quarterback in college football. It is named in honor of former NFL All-Pro Johnny Unitas, who led the Baltimore Colts to the 1958 NFL Championship and was a four-time recipient of the league's Most Valuable Player Award.

By winning the Unitas Award, Watson has now achieved the "Triple Crown" of quarterback awards over his career. He won the Manning Award in 2015 and the O'Brien Award the last two seasons.

The native of Gainesville, Georgia who is a junior in eligibility, but will receive his undergraduate degree on December 15, led Clemson to the ACC Championship last Saturday in a 42-35 victory over Virginia Tech. It was the second consecutive year Clemson has won the ACC title, the first time the program has done that in 28 years. He is the first Clemson quarterback to lead the Tigers to back to back conference crowns since Rodney Williams led Clemson to three straight league crowns from 1986-88.

Watson was 23-34 for 288 yards and three touchdowns passing and added a team best 85 yards rushing on 17 carries and scored twice against Virginia Tech. He was named the Most Valuable Player of the ACC Championship game for the second consecutive year.

The Tigers rank second in the final College Football Playoff Poll and will face Ohio State in the PlayStation Fiesta Bowl on December 31. It is the second consecutive year Clemson has made the College Football Playoff.

For the season, Watson has completed 329 of 487 passes for 3914 yards and 37 touchdowns. He ranks fourth in the nation in completions, fifth in touchdown passes and eighth in completion percentage and eighth in total offense. His 37 touchdown passes are a Clemson season record.

Watson has finished strong, connecting on 138 of 186 passes for 1586 yards and 15 touchdowns over the last five games. That is a 74 percent completion percentage. He has had 20 touchdowns rushing and passing over the five games and averaged 356.8 total offense yards per game.

BOULWARE WINS JACK LAMBERT AWARD

Clemson senior linebacker Ben Boulware has been named the recipient of the 2016 Jack Lambert Award. The honor is presented each year to the top linebacker in the nation by the Touchdown Club of Columbus, Ohio. Boulware will receive his award at the organization's annual banquet on Feb. 4. The award is named for Pittsburgh Steelers Hall of Famer and Kent State football legend Jack Lambert.

During Clemson's ACC Championship season, Boulware led the Tigers with 113 tackles, including nine for a loss and three sacks. He also forced three fumbles and intercepted a pass. He is a big reason Clemson ranks ninth in the nation in total defense, third in sacks and third in tackles for loss. He had 17 tackles in Clemson's win over Louisville and was named national defensive player of the week by four different services.

The senior, who will graduate on December 15, has been a starter each of the last two years when Clemson has qualified for the College Football Playoff and won the ACC title. The first-team All-ACC player has played 52 games in his career and has 335 career tackles, most among active Tigers.

Boulware is the first Clemson Tiger to win the award which was first presented in 1991 and has been claimed by current NFL stars Khalil Mack, Luke Kuechly, and Von Miller.

Boulware is the second Clemson player to be recognized with a national award by the Touchdown Club of Columbus. Quarterback Deshaun Watson won the Chic Harley Award as the National player of the Year and will join Boulware at the Feb. 4, ceremony.

VENABLES WINS BROYLES AWARD

Clemson Defensive Coordinator Brent Venables won the 21st annual Frank Broyles Award. It was presented December 6 and is given each year to the top assistant coach in college football and is given in honor of former Arkansas coach Frank Broyles.

Venables was joined on the list of finalists by Jeremy Pruitt, defensive coordinator at Alabama, Jim Leavitt, defensive coordinator at Colorado, Don Brown, defensive coordinator at Michigan and Matt Canada, offensive coordinator at Pittsburgh.

"This is a great honor for Brent and well deserved," said Head Coach Dabo Swinney. "He has done an outstanding job for us his entire time at Clemson (since 2012). This year he had to replace seven starters from our 2015 team and we are still a top 10 defense in many categories, including total defense. He had to replace three starters in the secondary and we are fifth in the nation in pass efficiency defense. the Year Award from the American Football Coaches Association. Clemson coaches won the two major assistant awards presented."

Venables had been a finalist twice previously, 2015 as Clemson defensive coordinator and 2006 as defensive coordinator at Oklahoma. He is the first Clemson assistant coach to win the award.

Despite having to replace six starters from last year who are on 2016 NFL roster, the Tigers are ranked in the top 25 in the nation in 14 difference defensive categories this year. That includes third in the nation in sacks and tackles for loss, fifth in third-down defense and pass efficiency defense, sixth in yards per play allowed, seventh in interceptions, ninth in total defense and 12th in scoring defense.

The play of Venables's defense is a big reason Clemson has a 12-1 record and is ranked second in the nation in the College Football Playoff Poll. The Tigers face Ohio State in the PlayStation Fiesta Bowl on December 31 in Glendale, Arizona.

BROOKS NAMED ASSISTANT COACH OF THE YEAR BY AFCA

Clemson Associate Head Coach and Defensive Tackles Coach Dan Brooks has been named the National Assistant Coach of the Year for the Football Bowl Subdivision by the American Football Coaches Association.

The Assistant Coach of the Year award was first presented in 1997 and was created to honor assistant coaches who excel in community service, commitment to the student-athlete, on-field coaching success and AFCA professional organization involvement.

It marks the second time in the last four years that a Clemson assistant has won the award. Chad Morris, now head coach at SMU, won the AFCA Coach of the Year in 2013.

Brooks, who is in his eight season at Clemson, is the first Clemson coach to win the award. The Tigers have an 83-25 record since he joined Dabo Swinney's staff in 2009. His defensive line is a big reason Clemson has had more tackles for loss than any other school in the nation over the last five years and ranks second in the nation in that category in 2016.

This year's Clemson defense ranks third in the nation in tackles for loss, and sacks and is ninth in total defense. The unit is a big reason the Tigers are 12-1 and are ranked third in the latest College Football Playoff ranking.

Clemson has finished with at least 10 wins each of the last six years, joining Alabama as the only schools that can make that claim.

Now in his 33rd year as an assistant coach, Brooks coached in his 400th game at the FBS level last September. He has had 30 of his former players drafted by the NFL, including seven in the first round, coached 15 all-conference selections, and an Outland Trophy winner.

Off the field, Brooks is a longtime member of the AFCA and has served on AFCA committees for 30 years. He is significantly involved with Crosspoint Church and volunteers his time with several different organizations such as the Boys and Girls Club, All In Team Foundation, Meals on Wheels, Wounded Warriors and Paralyzed American Veterans.

Brooks also served as co-host of the Picnic in Pittman fundraiser each year, which benefits the Friends of the Great Smokey Mountains.

BATTLE OF TWO OUTSTANDING, VETERAN QUARTERBACKS

When Clemson and Ohio State meet in the College Football Playoff it will be a meeting of two of the top veteran quarterbacks in the FBS. And they are winners. Clemson's Deshaun Watson has a 30-3 career record and Ohio State's J.T. Barrett is 26-3. Both have been outstanding when it comes to running and passing and have both accounted for at least 100 touchdowns on the ground and through the air.

There are just four current FBS quarterbacks with 100 touchdowns. Patrick Mahomes of Texas Tech has 115, Watson has 109, Zach Terrell of Western Michigan has 107 and Barrett has 100. All are juniors with exception of Terrell.

CLEMSON VS. RANKED TEAMS IN BOWL GAMES

Clemson has an 15-12 record in bowl games against top 25 opponents, but the Tigers are 6-3 against teams ranked seventh or higher. That includes a win over sixth ranked Ohio State in 2013.

Ohio State is ranked second by AP and by USA Today entering the PlayStation Fiesta Bowl and third by the College Football Playoff. If Clemson beats Ohio State it would be the highest ranked team according to the AP Poll Clemson has beaten in history. Three times Clemson has beaten a no. 3 team, including last year against Oklahoma in the College Football Playoff.

The highest ranked team Clemson has faced in a bowl is LSU, who was number-one entering the 1959 (1958 season) Sugar Bowl, a game Clemson lost by just a 7-0 score. Clemson defeated a fourth-ranked Nebraska team when it won the National Championship at the 1982 Orange Bowl.

Clemson also defeated a sixth-ranked Tennessee team in the 2003 Chick-Fil-A Bowl, a seventh ranked TCU team at the 1959 Bluebonnet Bowl and a seventh ranked LSU team in last year's Chick-fil-A Bowl.

NINE TIGERS NAMED FIRST-TEAM ALL-ACC

Nine Clemson players were named first-team All-ACC by the ACC Sports Media and eight were first team selections by the ACC Coaches in 2016. Clemson had more first-team Selections and more overall selections than any other schools.

Ben Boulware and Dexter Lawrence both received special honors from the ACC on Thursday. Boulware was named Co-Defensive Player of the Year by the ACC Coaches and Lawrence was named the Defensive Rookie of the Year. Lawrence was also named ACC Defensive Rookie of the Year by the ACC Media Association.

Clemson had three of the five first team offensive linemen on the ACC Media team, a first for the Clemson program and just the fifth time in ACC history.

TIGERS ON RECORD PACE OFFENSIVELY IN MANY AREAS

Clemson is on pace to establish some notable school records on offense, which is saying something considering the proficiency of the offense the last six years. The current team is ahead of the school record for passing yards per game and touchdown passes and first downs. It is just six yards per game off the total offense record and one point per game off the scoring mark.

He tied the Clemson record for touchdown catches in a single game against South Carolina and became the first Clemson receiver to have three touchdown receptions against the Gamecocks in the 114-game history of the series.

With nine career 100-yard receiving games, Williams is third in Clemson history in that category. Sammy Watkins has the record with 15, while DeAndre Hopkins had 12. Rod Gardner, another first round draft choice, also had nine.

Another example of Clemson's dominance this year has been scoring margin. The Tigers have outscored the opposition on average 40.2 to 18.4 and are one of just six schools to rank in the top 20 in the nation in scoring offense and scoring defense this year. Clemson's +21.8 points per game is seventh best in the nation. Ohio State's +28.5 is third best.

year when not playing Clemson, a .623 winning mark. Only Tennessee and Ohio State have a higher percentage.

Eleven of Clemson's 12 FBS regular season opponents this year are bowl bound. The only FBS team Clemson faced this year that won't go to a bowl is Syracuse. By comparison, Clemson faced just six bowl bound FBS teams in the regular season last year.

This is the most bowl eligible teams Clemson has faced in the regular season. The previous high was nine in 2010.

TIGERS HAVE MANY RECEIVING WEAPONS

Clemson has many experienced players when it comes to catching the ball. The Tigers have seven different players with at least 60 receptions over their respective careers. The group is led by Artavis Scott in terms of total receptions with 233, while Mike Williams leads the way in terms of reception yardage with 2480.

Scott needs just eight receptions to break Sammy Watkins Clemson record for career receptions. Watkins had 240 in his three years between 2011-13. Williams 2480 career reception yards ranks eighth in school history.

The "Magnificent Seven" list below have combined for 747 career receptions for 9,375 yards and 82 touchdowns. Most of those receptions, yards and touchdowns have come from quarterback Deshaun Watson.

GALLMAN RECORDS THIRD 100-YARD GAME VS. S. CAROLINA

Clemson running back Wayne Gallman tied a Clemson record with his 112 rushing yards against South Carolina. The native of Grayson, Georgia became the second Clemson running back in history to record three 100-yard rushing games against the same school in a career.

Gallman had 27 carries for 191 yards and a touchdown against South Carolina as a freshman, then had 19-102 in Columbia as a sophomore. He had 19 for 112 and a score this year against South Carolina, giving him 65 carries for 405 yards and two scores against the Gamecocks in his career, 6.2 per carry average.

The only other Clemson player in history with three 100-yard rushing games against the same opponent was Kenny Flowers, who did it against Duke from 1983-85.

CLEMSON SETS ACC RECORD

Clemson established a league record for victory margin by an ACC team over an SEC team in the 56-7 win over South Carolina on November 26. The 49 point win broke the mark of 46 points set in 2003 when Clemson won at South Carolina by a 63-17 margin. So Clemson now has the top two figures on the list and owns the mark for a home game and a road game.

The 56-7 win over South Carolina was the largest victory margin for Clemson in the series since 1900 when John Heisman and the Tigers defeated the Gamecocks by a 51-0 score in Columbia.

Clemson had 622 yards of total offense, most ever by Clemson against South Carolina, and had 40 first downs, most in Clemson history against any opponent.

CLEMSON EIGHTH ACC TEAM WITH 12 WINS

When Clemson won the ACC Championship on December 3, the Tigers became just the eighth program to win at least 12 games in a season. Now they have done it in consecutive years after winning 14 last year.

Clemson's 1981 National Championship team was the first ACC team to win 12 games in a season. Florida State did it five times between 1993 and 2014. The Seminoles actually had a streak of three seasons with at least 12 wins from 2012-14. They won a record 14 games (14-0) in 2013, then Clemson tied the mark last year.

Pittsburgh and Miami had 12 win seasons previously, but they were not in the ACC at the time.

CLEMSON SACK STREAK REACHES 43 GAMES

Clemson had four more sacks in the Virginia Tech game and now has at least one sack in 43 straight games. The last time Clemson did not have a sack was 2013 against The Citadel, a game in which the opposition threw the ball just five times.

Clemson has 43 sacks so far this year to rank second in the ACC behind Florida State. Carlos Watkins leads the Tigers this year with 8.5 sacks. That is the most sacks in a season by a Clemson defensive tackle since Vance Hammond had 8.5 in 1990.

Helping Watkins this year have been Dexter Lawrence with seven and Clelin Ferrell with four. Fifteen different players have recorded a sack this year, one more than the different number of players who had one last year. Over the 43-game streak, Clemson has had 146 sacks for 1058 yards. That is an average of 3.38 sacks for 24.8 lost yards.

DAWKINS SEMIFINALIST FOR 2017 NFL HALL OF FAME CLASS

Former Clemson All-American Brian Dawkins is one of 26 former players and coaches announced as a semifinal candidate for the Pro Football Hall of Fame Class of 2017. Dawkins is in his first season of eligibility.

Dawkins played at Clemson from 1992-95 and was an All-American in 1995 when he led the ACC in interceptions. He played 16 years in the NFL, 1996-2008 with Philadelphia and 2009-11 with Denver. He was a nine-time Pro Bowl selection, among the top five totals for safeties in NFL history.

Clemson has never had a former player inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

JOSEPH RECORDS TWO SACKS ON HIS BIRTHDAY

Kendall Joseph had a happy birthday at Wake Forest. The sophomore celebrated his birthday with a pair of sacks and a team best 11 tackles in Clemson's 22-point victory. He was a big reason Clemson held Wake Forest to 197 yards of total offense, just nine first downs and 2.0 yards per rush.

Joseph was the second Tiger to celebrate his birthday in a big way at Wake Forest. Thirty years earlier at Wake Forest, quarterback Rodney Williams celebrated his birthday when he threw for 205 yards and two scores in a 28-20.

Joseph is second on the Clemson team in tackles this year with 107 in 13 games. He has added nine tackles for loss and 3.5 sacks. He also has added 13 quarterback pressures and an interception. He has led Clemson in tackles three times this year, Auburn, NC State and Wake Forest.

HUEGEL AMONG CLEMSON BEST IN FIELD GOAL PERCENTAGE

Clemson sophomore kicker Greg Huegel led the nation in made field goals last year when he made 27-32. He has not had as many attempts this year, and nearly the same percentage, making 13-17. He has also made 56-58 extra points and leads the Tigers in scoring with 95 in 12 games for a 7.9 scoring average.

For his career, Huegel has made 40-49 field goals and that .816 percentage is third best in Clemson history on a career basis, just behind the .829 by Bob Paulling and .817 of Chandler Catanzaro.

GETTING OFF TO A GOOD START

One of the reasons Clemson is 6-0 away from home is getting off to a good start. Clemson has outscored the opposition in the first period on the road this year 84-10. That advantage was enhanced at Wake Forest when the Tigers won the first period 21-0.

Overall this year Clemson has outscored the opposition 166-27 in the first period. Pittsburgh is the only team to score a touchdown in the first period against the Tigers this year. They scored two.

Clemson has a 143-67 advantage in the second period as well, so Clemson has a 309-94 advantage by halftime this year, or an average lead of 16 points per game.

Over the last four games, Clemson has scored at least three touchdowns within its first four possessions. It is 13 of 16 possessions over the last four games total.

TIGER DT LAWRENCE A FRESHMAN ALL-AMERICAN

Clemson freshman defensive tackle Dexter Lawrence has lived up to his billing coming out of high school. He was a first-team USA Today All-American at Wake Forest High School in North Carolina. He was the player of the year in North Carolina according to all services last year when he helped his team to a 12-1 record.

So far this year Lawrence has been one of the top freshmen in the nation. He was a midseason pick as defensive Freshman of the Year by some services. Over the first 13 games, he has 75 tackles, 9.5 tackles for loss, including seven sacks. He leads the team in quarterback pressures with 19. He also has two blocked kicks, and two fumble recoveries. He has also played six plays on offense as well as a blocker.

He might have played his best game against Pittsburgh when he had nine tackles according to the coaches film, recovered a fumble and blocked two place kicks. He became just the fourth player in Clemson history to block two kicks in the same game. The others to do it were Wingo Avery against The Citadel in 1954, Mitch Belton vs. Maryland in 1989 and Rahim Abdullah vs. Auburn in the 1998 Peach Bowl.

SOME OF CLEMSON'S GREATEST STREAKS

Clemson endured a 43-42 loss to Pittsburgh at Memorial Stadium on November 12. The loss ended a lot of noteworthy streaks, accomplishments worth documenting. Here are noteworthy streaks that were snapped:

- Clemson had won 15 consecutive ACC games, second longest conference winning streak in school history. The record is still 20 between 1981-84.
- Won 27 straight non-national championship games dating to the 2014 season.
- Clemson had won 23 consecutive regular season games.
- Clemson had won 21 straight at home, longest winning streak at home in the nation at the time and the longest home winning streak in school history.
- Had won 44 consecutive games against unranked teams in either poll, 46 in a row against teams not ranked in the AP poll and 45 straight against unranked teams in Memorial Stadium.

CLEMSON'S BEST TOTAL OFFENSE GAMES

Clemson gained 630 yards total offense in the loss to Pittsburgh. That included 580 passing, an all-time ACC record, and 50 rushing. It was the sixth highest total offense game in Clemson history and just the second time Clemson lost a game in which it had at least 500 yards of total offense. The only other loss when gaining at least 500 yards was against Alabama in the 2015 season National Championship game. Clemson has averaged 508 yards a game this year and has had seven games of at least 500 yards this year, including four of the last five.

ACC PASSING YARDAGE BESTS

Deshaun Watson completed 52-70 passes for 580 yards and three touchdowns against Pittsburgh. He established an ACC record in terms of passing yardage and his completion total was second best. The previous record for passing yards in a game was 566 yards by Stephen Morris of Miami (FL) against NC State in 2012. The completion mark is still 55 by Rusty LaRue of Wake Forest against Duke in 1995.

His total offense figure of 588 was second best in ACC history. Tigers have four of the 14 games of at least 500 yards total offense in ACC history. The record was also set this year when Lamar Jackson of Louisville had 610 yards at Syracuse.

CLEMSON CAREER LEADERS IN TOUCHDOWN RECEPTIONS

With the presence of quarterback Deshaun Watson and his ability to spread the ball around to his receivers, it is no surprise that four of the top 13 receivers in Clemson history in terms of TD receptions are on this 2016 Clemson team.

Mike Williams has 20 touchdowns, 10 this year and 10 prior to this year, tied for third in Clemson history. Flanker Artavis Scott has 19 in his career, including five this year, and ranks fifth in school history. Jordan Leggett has 18 to rank in a tie for fifth but first among Clemson tight ends. Sophomore Deon Cain has nine off the bench this year and the sophomore has 14 total.

Cain has those 14 touchdown catches on just 66 career receptions. He scores a touchdown every 4.7 receptions, ahead of the record pace of one every 4.89 catches by Glenn Smith, who played for the Tigers from 1949-51.

TIGERS HAVE 69 TOUCHDOWNS

When running back Wayne Gallman scored his third touchdown of the Pittsburgh game on a short run, it was the 50th touchdown of the season for the Tigers. This is the ninth Clemson team in history to score 50 touchdowns in a season, but the sixth under Dabo Swinney. Clemson added five total touchdowns in the win at Wake Forest, four rushing and one passing and eight more against South Carolina, six passing and two rushing. So the Tigers now have 69 touchdowns for the year.

The Tigers set the school record last year with 71 touchdowns, two more than the 2013 team scored. Clemson has 69 touchdowns in 13 games so far, an average of 5.31 per game. Last year's Clemson team scored 71 touchdowns in 15 games, an average of 4.73 touchdowns per game. The per game record is 5.31 touchdowns per contest by the 2013 team that was guided by quarterback Tajh Boyd.

WILLIAMS GETS SECOND 1,000-YARD SEASON

Mike Williams had 100 receiving yards in the win over South Carolina and continued his assault on the Clemson receiving marks. He is already just the third player in Clemson history with two 1,000-yard receiving seasons. The only other Clemson players to do it are Rod Gardner and Sammy Watkins. Both of them were NFL first round draft choices.

Gardner was the first to do it and witnessed Williams 202 yard receiving game against Pittsburgh earlier this year when he was inducted into the Clemson Hall of Fame that day. Watkins has two of the top three seasons with 1464 in 2013 and 1219 in 2011.

Williams had 15 catches for 202 yards against Pittsburgh and was named ACC Receiver of the Week. His 15 catches were second to Watkins 16 against Ohio State in 2013. His 202 receiving yards ranked tied for second. Watkins has that record also with 227 against Ohio State in his last game as a Clemson player.

For the season, Williams now has 84 receptions for 1171 yards and 10 touchdowns. He is second in the ACC in reception yards, second in touchdown catches and fourth in receptions per game. His 1171 receiving yards are fourth highest in Clemson history.

ARTAVIS SCOTT MOVES INTO TOP 10 IN ACC HISTORY

Clemson receiver Artavis Scott had a career high 13 receptions for 125 yards and a touchdown in the 43-42 loss to Pittsburgh on November 12. He moved into the top 10 in ACC history in career receptions with that performance. He now has 240

TWO TRUE FRESHMEN TACKLES STARTED VS. PITTSBURGH

Clemson gained 630 yards of total offense in the 43-42 loss to Pittsburgh, an amazing number considering the Tigers started two true freshmen at the offensive tackle positions. Regular starter Jake Fruhmorgen is out with a shoulder injury and personal reasons, while Mitch Hyatt did not start because he was a minute late for a team meeting on Saturday morning, an on-going rule in Dabo Swinney's career. Hyatt had started the first 24 games of his career at left tackle.

Hyatt came into the game on the second series and on his second play suffered an ankle injury and did not return to the game.

That meant true freshman Sean Pollard played all 95 snaps in the contest at one tackle and true freshman Tremayne Anchrum played 89 snaps at the other tackle.

The game against Pittsburgh marked just the second game since 1944 that two true freshmen started at both offensive tackles for the Tigers. The only other time took place was last year when Hyatt and Fruhmorgen started against Wake Forest. Before that you have to go back to WWII when the United States Military drafted all of Clemson's juniors and seniors.

Pollard continued to start against Wake Forest and Hyatt returned to the starting lineup.

CLEMSON IN TOP TWO IN ACC IN MANY CATEGORIES

Clemson ranks among the top two teams in the ACC in 15 different categories. The Tigers hold the top spot in seven categories and rank second in eight. Eight of the rankings deal with offense, six with defense and one (opponent penalty yards) is a team category.

The rankings show Clemson's rate of success on both sides of the ball as Clemson is in the top two in the ACC in scoring offense and defense and total offense and defense. Clemson leads the ACC in passing yards per game and ranks first in pass efficiency defense. Clemson is also in the top two in the ACC in sacks by its defense and fewest sacks allowed.

TURNOVERS A KEY

Clemson has had problems with turnovers this year. The Tigers have forced 24, but committed 24 for an even margin. While Clemson is 12-1, the turnovers by the offense have been a direct indicator of victory margin.

In seven games this year the Tigers have had zero or one turnover on offense, Clemson has outscored the opponent 328-72, an average victory margin of 36.5 points a game.

In the six games Clemson has had two or more turnovers, Clemson has outscored the opposition 194-167.

CLEMSON AT 51 PERCENT ON THIRD DOWN

Clemson has converted on 51 percent of its third downs so far this year, on pace to become just the second team in school history to convert at least half of their third down opportunities. This current Clemson team has converted 102-198 for a .515 mark. The record was set in 1978, the first year the Clemson SID office tracked the stat.

That year Clemson converted 99 of 192 third downs, a .516 figure. The quarterback on that team was Steve Fuller. This year's quarterback is Deshaun Watson. Both quarterbacks had the number-four in common for their jersey number.

Clemson quarterback Deshaun Watson went over the 8,000 yard mark in terms of passing yards in the win over Syracuse. He also joined the ACC's 10,000 yard club in terms of total offense in the loss to Pittsburgh and now has 11,318, third in ACC history.

The only other Clemson player to go over 10,000 yards in total offense is Tajh Boyd, who had 13,069 between 2010 and 2013. He is second in ACC history behind the 13,582 by Philip Rivers. Watson is the first ACC player to reach 10,000 yards before the end of his junior year.

WINNING THE CLOSE ONES

Clemson defeated Florida State in Tallahassee, Fla. on October 29, 37-34, in one of the most thrilling games of the Dabo Swinney era. There were three lead changes in the final 5:25 of the fourth quarter. The Tigers did not take the lead for good until the 2:06 mark of the fourth quarter when Deshaun Watson connected with tight end Jordan Leggett for a 34-yard touchdown.

The Clemson defense came up big on the last drive with sacks on the Seminoles last two plays, the first by Christian Wilkins and Dexter Lawrence, and the last by Ben Boulware.

The victory was the fifth this season by seven points or less. The run of close wins started in the first two games of the year when the Tigers won at now 11th ranked Auburn 19-13, then defeated a now 6-1 Troy team, 30-24. The Tigers downed now fifth-ranked Louisville on October 1 by a 42-36 count, then beat NC State in overtime, 24-17.

Clemson won a sixth game by seven or less over Virginia Tech in the ACC Championship game. This Clemson team has tied the school record for wins by seven or less in a season.

The greatest team in Clemson history in terms of winning close games is the 1948 Tiger eleven that finished with an 11-0 record. Under Coach Frank Howard and team captain Phil Prince, the Tigers were 6-0 in games decided by seven points or less, including a 24-23 win over Missouri in the Gator Bowl to conclude the season.

BOWL NOTES

This current run of close wins is remarkable, or you could say things are just evening out. Between 2008-10 Clemson was 3-13 in games decided by seven points or less, including 1-5 in 2010, Dabo Swinney's second full season. That tied for the most losses by seven points or less in a season. Since that 3-13 record in that three-year time span, Clemson is 17-3 in games decided by seven points or less.

Prior to the 2011 season, Clemson's all-time record in "close games" was 177-176-45. With the 16-3 run, the Tigers are now 194-179-45 in games decided by seven or less.

Prior to this stretch, the greatest run of victory in close games came during the heart of the Frank Howard era. From 1948-51 Howard and the Tigers did not lose a game decided by seven points or less, posting a 12-0-3 record.

Clemson won its 10th straight true road game when the Tigers defeated Wake Forest on Nov. 19. That is already the longest road winning streak in the nation. What was extra ordinary is that Clemson has now had two straight perfect seasons when it comes to road games, a first in school history.

ANOTHER PICK FOR JADAR JOHNSON

Jadar Johnson had his fifth interception of the year in the win over South Carolina. He was named first-team All-ACC this season.

In his first year as a starter, Johnson had four interceptions for 100 yards over his first three years and he now has equaled that total as a senior in 2016. In 12 games this year he has five interceptions for 44 return yards. Johnson is tied for 10th in the nation in total interceptions.

In many ways Johnson's performance this year has been similar to B.J. Goodson last year. Goodson was a key reserve his first three years, then led Clemson in tackles as a senior in 2015. Johnson was a backup his first three years and now leads the team in interceptions in his final year.

LANDMARK GAMES BY ACTIVE TIGERS

Clemson has many veteran offensive players on its 2016 roster. As a result they have had many landmark statistical performances. Quarterback Deshaun Watson has 12 games with at least 300 yards passing, including six this year. He has 20 games of at least 300 yards total offense, including 10 games with at least 400 yards.

Wayne Gallman has 17 100-yard rushing games, the most in Clemson history. The Tigers are 17-0 when he has at least 100 yards rushing. Mike Williams has nine 100-yard rushing games, Artavis Scott has six and Jordan Leggett has two, both against Florida State.

HEAD COACH DABO SWINNEY

There is a strong coaching heritage over the 120 years of Clemson football that dates to the early 1900s, when John Heisman led the program. Jess Neely and Frank Howard continued the winning and joined Heisman in the College Football Hall of Fame. Danny Ford, a finalist for the Hall of Fame last year, led Clemson to the 1981 National Championship.

Dabo Swinney has been at Clemson for just nine years as head coach, but he has cemented himself among the Tiger legends of the past. He will be the first person to tell you that the program has not reached all of its goals just yet, but he took the 2015 Tigers to the brink of winning the program's second National Championship and has done so again with the 2016 team.

Swinney guided Clemson to the No. 1 national ranking in every College Football Playoff poll in 2015, and led the Tigers to their first National Championship Game appearance under the new format after his team defeated Oklahoma 37-17 in the Capital One Orange Bowl on December 31. The Tigers led Alabama in the fourth quarter of the championship game, but came up just short, 45-40, in an epic game in Glendale, Ariz.

Following the team's 14-1 record and No. 2 final ranking, he was the recipient of 10 National and two ACC Coach-of-the-Year honors. The win over Oklahoma made him just the second coach in college football history (joining Alabama's Bear Bryant) to beat the Sooners in two different bowl games. The Tigers defeated four teams that finished the season in the top 15 of both polls, Oklahoma, Notre Dame, North Carolina and Florida State.

In 2016, with a preseason No. 2 national ranking, Clemson lived up to the hype after compiling a 12-1 record and earning the two-seed for the College Football Playoff. Along the way, Clemson knocked off three top-25 foes, including third-ranked Louisville on Oct. 1. The Tigers exorcised several road demons, winning at historically tough places such as Auburn, Georgia Tech and Florida State during the 2016 campaign.

He has coached Deshaun Watson to a pair of record-setting seasons. The two-time Heisman Trophy finalist became the first player in FBS history to pass for at least 4,000 yards and rush for at least 1,000 yards in a season in 2015, and followed by setting a Clemson record with 37 passing touchdowns in 2016.

Watson was named the ACC Player-of-the-Year in 2015 and Most Valuable Player of the ACC Championship Game in both 2015 and 2016. He became only the fourth quarterback in history to receive the Davey O'Brien Award twice, winning both seasons.

In 2015, a record 17 players were named to one of three All-ACC teams in 2015, including all five starting offensive linemen for the first time in school history. In 2016, fifteen players were honored, including three first-team offensive line selections (also a school first).

The 2012, 2013 and 2014 seasons were also noteworthy, with three top-15 final rankings. Clemson joined Alabama, Florida State, Ohio State and Oregon as the only schools in the nation to make that claim. Each of Clemson's teams from 2011-16 also won 10+ games, the first time the program has done it six straight seasons. Only Alabama has duplicated the feat.

Over the past six seasons, Clemson has compiled a 68-13 record, the most wins in a six-year period in school history. Forty-four of the victories have come against ACC teams. The 2016 seniors have a school-record 47 wins entering the Fiesta Bowl.

Clemson was in the top 10 of APR scores and the final top 25 of the AP and USA Today polls in 2011, 2012, 2013 and 2014, the only FBS program that could make that claim.

In nine years (eight full seasons) as the Tigers' head coach, Swinney has directed Clemson to a 87-28 overall record (.756) and a 54-15 ACC regular-season mark (.783). He has also led the Tigers to the ACC Championship game four times, won three ACC titles, won or shared five ACC Atlantic Division titles, and won five bowl games.

In 2014, Clemson overcame a slew of season-ending injuries and a difficult road schedule to register a 10-3 overall record and 6-2 mark in ACC regular-season games. Evidence of the mass injuries were shown by the fact that 48 different Tigers started at least one game among the 24 regular positions.

The Tigers finished the 2014 season ranked No. 15 in both the AP and coaches polls and was No. 17 in the final College Football Playoff ranking. The top-15 ranking marked the fourth straight year Clemson finished ranked in the polls under Swinney, who was named 2014 Grant Teaff National Coach-of-the-Year by FCA. He was also a finalist for the 2014 Bobby Dodd National Coach-of-the-Year Award, and won the Gene Stallings Award. Swinney's Tigers joined Alabama, Florida State and Oregon as the only schools in the nation ranked in the top 25 of the final polls each season from 2011-14.

Losses at No. 12 Georgia and No. 1 Florida State within Clemson's first three games of the 2014 season saw the Tigers in contention in the fourth quarter in both, including an overtime loss to the Seminoles. But Clemson rebounded and won its next six games, all against ACC foes.

With the 2014 Russell Athletic Bowl win over Oklahoma and Head Coach Bob Stoops by a score of 40-6, Swinney became the first and only coach in history to win three bowl games in consecutive seasons over teams whose head coaches had previously won the national title.

Defense was the key to success for the 2014 Tigers, as they led in the nation in total defense, pass efficiency defense, first downs allowed, third-down conversion percentage defense and tackles for loss along with being in the top five in many other defensive categories.

Defensive end Vic Beasley was named ACC Defensive Player-of-the-Year as well as being a finalist for multiple national awards and a first-team All-American thanks to his 21.5 tackles for loss and 12 sacks. All season, he led active players in the nation in career tackles for loss (52.5) and career sacks (33).

Clemson's young 2014 offense was set back with the injury to first-year freshman quarterback Watson, who suffered injuries that forced him to miss more than half the season. He still had 14 passing touchdowns against only two interceptions and a 188.6 passing efficiency, one of the best figures in the country.

The Tigers' top pass catcher (Artavis Scott) and rusher (Wayne Gallman) were also freshmen. Scott had 76 receptions for 965 yards and eight touchdowns, while Gallman had 769 rushing yards and four touchdowns.

Clemson capped off the 2013 season with a thrilling 40-35 victory over No. 6 Ohio State in the Orange Bowl. Clemson had an 11-2 record after finishing 7-1 in ACC regular-season games for the second year in a row. It marked Clemson's first back-to-back 11-win seasons in school history. The Tigers had a 4-0 record in ACC road games, the first time that happened since 1995.

The Tigers were No. 12 in the final BCS standings. It was the third straight year Clemson finished in the top 15 of the BCS standings, one of only six schools that could make that claim. Clemson, who was ranked No. 7 in the final USA Today poll and No. 8 in the final AP poll, was also one of only five programs ranked in the top 20 of every BCS standing from 2011 to 2013.

For the fourth time in his first five full seasons as head coach, Swinney was a finalist for the Liberty Mutual National Coach-of-the-Year Award in 2013. Swinney was also one of 16 semifinalists for national coach-of-the-year by the Maxwell Football Club Collegiate Coach-of-the-Year Award for the second year in a row.

The Clemson offense continued to put up record-setting numbers in 2013, as it averaged 40.2 points and 507.7 yards per game. The Tiger defense also finished in the top 25 in the nation in scoring defense, total defense and turnovers forced. Clemson joined Florida State as the only schools in the nation to finish in the top 25 in the nation in scoring offense, scoring defense, total offense and total defense.

Leading the way was Boyd, the ACC Player-of-the-Year. The quarterback joined center Dalton Freeman as first-team All-Americans by AFCA, just the third time since 1945 that the AFCA first-team All-America quarterback and center were from the same school.

Boyd's favorite wide receiver, DeAndre Hopkins, had 18 receiving touchdowns, second-most in the nation, and was a second-team All-American. He was a big reason Clemson scored a then school-record 533 points.

Swinney was a finalist for the 2012 Liberty Mutual National Coach-of-the-Year Award for the third time. He was also one of 16 semifinalists for national coach-of-the-year by the Maxwell Football Club Collegiate Coach-of-the-Year Award.

Swinney's 2011 squad, which ended the season ranked No. 22 in the nation, captured Clemson's first ACC title since 1991 when it beat No. 3 Virginia Tech 38-10 in the ACC Championship game in Charlotte, N.C. It tied for the highest-ranked team the Tigers defeated in history. The win, the Tigers' second over the Hokies in 2011, gave Clemson its first 10-win season since 1990. The Tigers' four wins over top-25 ranked teams established a school record. Swinney has 18 top-25 wins in his head-coaching career, including nine victories over top-10 teams.

The Tigers jumped out to an 8-0 record and a No. 6 national ranking after being unranked in the preseason. Games 3-5 marked a tough stretch, as Clemson hosted No. 19 Auburn, who entered with a national-best 17-game winning streak, and No. 11 Florida State along with a road game at No. 10 Virginia Tech. The Tigers were victorious in all three contests by scores of 38-24, 35-30 and 23-3, respectively, marking the first time in history that an ACC team won three consecutive games over top-25 ranked (AP) teams. Clemson also held Virginia Tech without a touchdown for the first time in a game at Blacksburg since 1995.

For his efforts, Swinney was named Bobby Dodd National Coach-of-the-Year in 2011 to become the first Tiger head coach to win a national coach-of-the-year award since 1981, when Danny Ford directed Clemson to the national title.

Swinney, who was also one of five finalists for the Eddie Robinson National Coach-of-the-Year Award, one of 10 finalists for the Bear Bryant National Coach-of-the-Year Award, one of 10 finalists for the Liberty Mutual Coach-of-the-Year Award and received the Regional AFCA Coach-of-the-Year Award in 2011, led the Tigers to their first Orange Bowl berth since 1981 with the help of five First-Team All-ACC players.

Dwayne Allen received the John Mackey Award as the nation's top tight end and totaled 50 receptions for 598 yards and eight touchdowns. Branch, a finalist for the Hendricks Award, had an ACC-high 17 tackles for loss and an ACC-high 10.5 sacks, including tying school-records for tackles for loss (6) and sacks (4) in Clemson's win at No. 10 Virginia Tech. Freeman was a finalist for the Rimington Trophy as well.

Watkins was one of the most dynamic freshmen in the nation. The ACC Rookie-of-the-Year totaled 82 receptions for 1,219 yards and 12 touchdowns along with a 25.0-yard average and one touchdown on kickoff returns despite missing one game due to injury. Watkins teamed up with Ellington to give Clemson a 1,000-yard receiver and 1,000-yard rusher, as Ellington had 1,178 rushing yards and 11 rushing touchdowns. Watkins was also an AP First-Team All-American, just the fourth in college football history as a first-year freshman.

Swinney became just the second Tiger coach to lead Clemson's program into a bowl game in his first two full years as head coach, joining his predecessor, Bowden. The 2010 schedule was one of the most challenging in school history, as nine bowl teams were on the regular-season slate and two of the four non-conference opponents were ranked in the top 25, just the second time in 21 years the Tigers faced two top-25 non-conference opponents in the regular season.

The 2010 season included wins over bowl teams Georgia Tech, Maryland and NC State. NC State was ranked No. 23 in the nation and was leading the ACC in scoring. But the defense held NC State and Russell Wilson to just one touchdown and 13 points. The team excelled defensively in 2010 and was 13th in the nation in scoring defense and in the top 25 in both total defense and passing defense.

C.J. Spiller was a unanimous first-team All-American in 2009 and Da'Quan Bowers duplicated the feat on the defense a year later. Bowers won the 2010 Nagurski Award as the nation's top defensive player and he received the Hendricks Award as the country's top defensive end. He was also a finalist for the Bednarik Award and Lombardi Award. He led the nation in sacks (15.5) and tied for the national lead in tackles for loss (26).

In 2009, Swinney's first full year as head coach, he led the Tigers to their first title of the ACC's Atlantic Division. The Tigers came just six points short of winning their first ACC title in 18 years. Swinney was named ACC Coach-of-the-Year by Sporting News and was a finalist for the Liberty Mutual Coach-of-the-Year Award.

Swinney accumulated nine wins, second-most among FBS coaches in their first full year behind Oregon's Chip Kelly. The nine wins tied for fourth-most in ACC history for a first-year head coach. He also led the Tigers to their first bowl win since 2005 in the 21-13 victory over Kentucky in the Music City Bowl.

The Tigers reached the nine-win mark playing a schedule that included four games against top-15 opponents, just the second year in school history (1999 was the other) that Clemson played four games against teams ranked in the top 15 of the AP poll. The Tigers' three FBS non-conference opponents had a combined record of 29-10 in 2009. Clemson gave Rose Bowl-bound TCU one of its stiffest tests in a 14-10 Horned Frog victory on Sept. 26.

Swinney's first season included a six-game winning streak at midseason, a streak that saw the Tigers score 34+ points in every contest, a first in school history. During that stretch, the Tigers defeated No. 8 Miami (Fla.) on the road. The 40-37 overtime victory tied for the highest-ranked team Clemson has defeated on the road in history.

That was the second of six straight wins, the longest winning streak for the Clemson program in four years.

The streak also included a 40-24 win over Florida State and Bobby Bowden, the Hall of Fame coach who is first in victories in FBS history. The winning streak brought Clemson to a No. 15 national ranking in the AP poll after the ACC Atlantic Division clinching victory over Virginia on Nov. 21.

The Tigers had success on offense, defense and special teams during the 2009 season. They were 28th in the nation and third in the ACC in scoring offense (31.1), while the defense was 20th in total defense (314.3) and seventh in pass defense (162.8). Clemson tied for fifth in the country in interceptions (21) as well.

Clemson added a school-record six kick returns for touchdowns in 2009, four on kickoff returns and two on punt returns.

The main reason Clemson was so outstanding on special teams was the play of college football's most dynamic player (Spiller) in 2009. The Tiger running back was named MVP of the ACC in 2009 and was a Consensus All-American. He had five kick returns for

CLEMSON ON FIELD & IN THE CLASSROOM

Clemson is the only school in the nation to rank in the top 10 of APR scores (four-year averages) and in the final top 25 of both polls each of the last four years. In fact, Clemson has finished in the top 10 of the APR scores each of the last five years.

The streak of top 25 final rankings on the field includes three straight years of top 15 final rankings by AP and USA Today.

touchdowns during the 2009 season, an all-time Clemson record, and established the NCAA record for kickoff returns for touchdowns in a career with seven. He was also the only FBS player to score at least one touchdown in every game in 2009.

Overall, the Tigers held down three positions on the All-ACC First-Team and five spots on the second team. Only Virginia Tech had more representatives.

In October 2008, he was named Clemson interim head coach, replacing Tommy Bowden, who had been his position coach as a player at Alabama and was Clemson's head coach since 1999. He led the Tigers to a 4-2 record over the remainder of the 2008 regular season, including a win over South Carolina in the regular-season finale. That strong finish led to a Gator Bowl bid against Nebraska.

On Dec. 1, 2008, the interim tag was removed from the title and he was named the program's head coach. At the time, there had been 28 interim head coaches at the FBS level since 1970 and those coaches had combined for a record of 26-86-2. Only one of those 28 interim coaches posted a winning record, and that was Swinney. When he was hired as the head coach, Swinney became just the second interim coach to be elevated to the head coach position at the same school during that time period.

Swinney hit the ground running in his first week as interim head coach, as he prepared for a 5-1 Georgia Tech team. He had to reorganize his staff and regroup his team and Clemson Nation in just five days. While the Tigers lost by four points, he accomplished many goals in that first week through his outstanding leadership. One of the most impressive demonstrations of unity came during the team's "Tiger Walk."

Prior to the game against the Yellow Jackets, Swinney decided to have his team depart buses outside the Lot 5 parking lot near the WestZone at Memorial Stadium and experience the gameday atmosphere. Dressed in jackets and ties, the team was embraced by thousands of Tiger fans who stood 10 deep for the 200-yard march to the stadium. It was the centerpiece of his "All In" theme during his first week as head coach. It is a tradition that has continued.

In his second week as head coach, an off-week, he invited the Clemson student body to a practice, and nearly 1,000 students showed up. He spoke to the group and actually allowed some students to participate during practice, as they were selected to attempt a field goal, punt against a live rush and field a punt. He also took the entire team to the Greenville Children's Hospital for a visit with young men and women fighting cancer.

He has continued his community involvement through his foundation. His foundation made the first contribution to the cancer fund established for former Boston College linebacker Mark Herzlich. Many schools followed his lead the remainder of the season.

The Liberty Mutual Coach-of-the-Year Award evaluates coaching performances in terms of coaching excellence, sportsmanship, integrity, academic excellence and community commitment. It is easy to see why Swinney was a national finalist for that award in his first full season as head coach in 2009, and again in 2011, 2012 and 2013.

The 1993 Alabama graduate joined the Clemson staff prior to the 2003 season. In his 13 years as an assistant or head coach, the Tigers have finished in the top 25 of the polls nine times and have totaled 24 wins over top-25 teams, including victories over Florida State (6), Auburn (2), Miami (Fla.) (2), Oklahoma (2), Virginia Tech (2), Georgia (1), Louisiana State (1), Ohio State (1) and Tennessee (1) during his tenure in Tiger-town. That includes 15 top-25 wins as a head coach.

Swinney coached his wide receiver position to a level of consistency that had not been seen previously at Clemson. He had a wideout finish first or second in the ACC in catches in five of his six years as an assistant coach. In his first year, he had three of the top-10 receivers in the ACC, a first in Tiger history. He has coached a First or Second-Team All-ACC wideout (Derrick Hamilton, Aïrese Currie, Chansi Stuckey, Aaron Kelly, Jacoby Ford, Watkins, Hopkins, Scott, Mike Williams) in 12 of his 13 seasons in Tigertown, also an unprecedented feat at Clemson.

In 2004 and 2005, he coached the ACC reception champion (Currie (2004), Stuckey (2005)). It was the first time Clemson had two different players lead the ACC in receptions in consecutive years. In 2007, Kelly led the ACC in yards, giving Swinney an ACC receiving king three out of four years. Stuckey earned First-Team All-ACC honors in back-to-back years, a first for a Tiger wide receiver in 25 years.

In 2007, Swinney coached Kelly, a First-Team All-ACC selection who led the league in receiving yards per game and touchdown catches (11). He also finished second in receptions per game with 88 catches.

The Alabama native has a reputation as one of the top recruiters in the nation. In 2006, he was listed as the No. 5 recruiter in the nation by Rivals. It marked the second straight year that he was lauded by the website as a top-25 national recruiter. He signed 38 players in his five recruiting seasons as an assistant coach and was a major reason Clemson's 2008 recruiting class was rated No. 2 in the nation by ESPN.com when he signed 11 players. He was named one of the top-25 recruiters in the nation by Rivals.com in 2007 as well.

When Swinney accepted the interim head coaching position on Oct. 13, 2008, he described his feelings as "bittersweet," because he was taking over for Bowden, who had been his first position coach at Alabama in 1989. He had also brought Swinney back to the coaching profession in 2003 and has had a profound effect on his life. Both had followed similar paths as players, as Bowden was a walk-on at West Virginia and Swinney was a walk-on at Alabama.

Swinney received a commerce & business administration degree from Alabama in 1993 after lettering three times (1990-92). A walk-on who went on to earn a scholarship, Swinney was a wide receiver on Alabama's 1992 national championship squad. Swinney was also named Academic All-SEC along with being an SEC Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll member in 1990 and 1992.

Along with his appearance in the 1993 Sugar Bowl, his Alabama teams played in the 1990 Sugar Bowl, 1991 Fiesta Bowl and 1991 Blockbuster Bowl. Both Sugar Bowl appearances came after winning the SEC Championship game.

After his playing career, Swinney served as a graduate assistant from 1993-95 at Alabama, where he coached in the 1994 Gator Bowl and 1995 Citrus Bowl. In December 1995, he received a master's degree in business administration from Alabama.

He became a full-time assistant coach at Alabama in February 1996 under Head Coach Gene Stallings (now in the Hall of Fame) and coached a total of five seasons there on a full-time basis. Swinney was assigned to coach the Crimson Tide's wide receivers and tight ends in 1996, a season that saw Alabama win the SEC Western Division title and make an Outback Bowl appearance. The following year, he solely coached the tight ends under Head Coach Mike DuBose.

In 1998, he coached Alabama's wide receivers, a position he held for three seasons. At the end of the 1999 campaign, Swinney coached the Crimson Tide in the 2000 Orange Bowl after winning the SEC Championship game. Wide receiver Freddie Milons was the game MVP.

During his time at Alabama, Swinney was a part of six teams with 10+ wins, five top-10 finishes, one national title (1992), three SEC Championships (1989,92,99) and five SEC Western Division titles (1992,93,94,96,99) as a player and coach.

From April 2001 to February 2003, Swinney was in private business in Alabama. He married the former Kathleen Bassett in 1994. They have three sons, Will (17), Drew (15) and Clay (12).

SWINNEY 8-4 VS. TOP-10 TEAMS

Clemson defeated another top 10 team on October 1 when the Tigers defeated third-ranked Louisville in a thriller in Death Valley. It was the fourth top-10 win in the past two seasons for Swinney, who is now 10-5 against top-10 teams at Clemson. It is interesting to note that Swinney has not built up this record at home. Only two of the nine wins over a top 10 team have come at home. Five have been at neutral sites and two in opponent home stadiums.

SWINNEY VS. WINNINGEST ACTIVE FBS COACHES

Dabo Swinney is seventh among active coaches nationally in terms of career winning percentage. Swinney has an 87-28 record and .756 mark. The leader is Urban Meyer at .855. The two face each other December 31 in the Playstation Fiesta Bowl. Swinney moved past Mark Richt with the win at Georgia Tech and past TCU's Gary Patterson when the Horned Frogs lost at West Virginia.

It is interesting to note that since 2011, Swinney has beaten six of the other 11 on the list with at least a 70 percent winning mark. A look to the list below shows that Swinney has beaten Meyer (2013), Jimbo Fisher (2011,15,16), Bob Stoops (2014,15), Mark Richt (2013), Bobby Petrino (2014-16) and Brian Kelly (2015).

SEPT. 3, 2016 • JORDAN-HARE STADIUM • AUBURN, ALA.

Clemson opened the 2016 season Saturday with a 19-13 win over Auburn in front of a sellout Jordan-Hare Stadium. The Tigers batted down a Hail Mary pass attempt on the final play of the game to move to 1-0 on the season.

Deshaun Watson passed for 248 yards and a touchdown, while wide receiver Mike Williams signaled his return with a career night. He caught nine passes for 174 yards to lead the playmakers. Defensively, Clemson came up with three takeaways and held Auburn to just 262 yards.

A scoreless first quarter saw the Tigers put together a pair of drives that resulted in points in the second. After three big completions to Williams — who returned from a neck injury suffered in last year's opener — Wayne Gallman plunged in from a yard out behind two defensive tackles lined up in the backfield. With just seven seconds left before the half, Greg Huegel tacked on a 30-yard field goal to put Clemson up 10-3.

Auburn pulled to within a touchdown at 13-6 heading into the fourth quarter, but Hunter Renfrow provided the play of the night. Facing third-and-goal, Watson lofted a beautiful pass from the 16 to Renfrow, who made a spectacular catch in the corner of the endzone. It was his third straight game with a touchdown reception.

TROY

SEPT. 10, 2016 • MEMORIAL STADIUM • CLEMSON, S.C.

The No. 2 Clemson Tigers defeated Troy 30-24 at Memorial Stadium on Saturday afternoon. The victory extended the Tigers' home winning streak to 17 games.

The Tigers (2-0) were led by quarterback Deshaun Watson, who was 27-53 passing for 292 yards and three touchdowns, as he moved ahead of Woodrow Dantzler for third place on Clemson's all-time passing yards list.

The first quarter featured little scoring, as both teams struggled to develop any type of offensive rhythm. Favorable field position following a punt allowed the Trojans (1-1) to convert a short drive into the game's first score, a 39-yard field goal by Ryan Kay. On the ensuing possession, the Tigers reciprocated with a 26-yard field goal by Greg Huegel.

The second quarter was a far different story. Watson took advantage of a Troy turnover by throwing a 35-yard touchdown pass to Hunter Renfrow, marking the sophomore's fourth straight game with a touchdown reception.

Interceptions played a key role in the second quarter, with Brandon Silvers throwing three to Tiger linebackers. Interestingly enough, these were the first career interceptions for all three (Jalen Williams, Kendall Joseph, Dorian O'Daniel). Williams' interception, the byproduct of a tipped pass at the line, bailed out the Tigers, who had just turned the ball over in their own territory.

Despite several electrifying offensive and defensive plays, including a 66-yard touchdown run by Troy running back Jabir Frye that tied the score 10-10. Late in the quarter, Clemson's Ray-Ray McCloud dropped a sure punt return for a touchdown on the one yard line, and after a lengthy video review, Troy took over on a touchback.

McCloud, who had seven catches for 86 yards in the game, had three receptions on a key third-quarter drive en route to a goal-line situation. Defensive lineman Christian Wilkins then made the second-most important reception of his college career later in the drive in the fourth quarter, a one-yard touchdown grab, the first of his career, that gave the Tigers a 20-10 lead.

Clemson scored to take a 27-10 lead with 10 minutes remaining in the game when Watson found Deon Cain in the endzone for a 23-yard touchdown. After a Huegel field goal with 2:25 remaining, Troy drove 68 yards and scored to cut the deficit to 30-24, as Silvers connected with Deondre Douglas for a one-yard touchdown pass with 44 seconds remaining. The Tigers recovered the ensuing onside kick and held on for the 30-24 victory.

GAME 3

SC STATE 0

SEPT. 17, 2016 • MEMORIAL STADIUM • CLEMSON, S.C.

Fueled by a 31-point first quarter, No. 3 Clemson routed SC State 59-0 on Sept. 17, 2016 in Memorial Stadium. That opening frame was the highest scoring first quarter in school history. With the win, the Tigers improved to 3-0 on the year.

"Today was a great day," said head coach Dabo Swinney. "It's hard to play 92 guys and still get the shutout...I don't care who you're playing. I'm so proud of our guys. They played a clean game for four quarters today. This was great for our team, for our spirit and our morale. It was great to get out there today and go play."

On the offensive side of the ball, the Tigers were led by Deshaun Watson, who was 12-15 passing for 152 yards and three touchdowns, and Ray-Ray McCloud, who had 60 yards and two touchdowns on four catches. Clemson had 555 yards offensively, and 92 Tigers saw action.

The Tigers started scoring with 11:33 left in the first quarter on a seven-yard touchdown pass from Watson to McCloud, and they did not look back from there. Later in the quarter, the Bulldogs fumbled a Tiger kickoff in the endzone and Denzel Johnson pounced on the ball for his first career touchdown, upping the lead to 21-0 with 5:20 remaining in the first quarter.

Nick Schuessler then added to the scoring with his first career touchdown pass, a 45-yard connection with freshman Diondre Overton. A 26-yard field goal from Greg Huegel rounded out the first quarter, giving the Tigers a 31-0 lead.

Second-quarter action picked up with a second touchdown pass from Watson to McCloud, marking McCloud's first career game with multiple scores. One more touchdown from Watson to Deon Cain later, and the Tiger took a 45-0 lead into halftime. Clemson's 45 first-half points were the most scored in a first half since the Tigers' matchup with Ball State in 2012, when Clemson also scored 45 points.

With the third and fourth quarters shortened to 12 minutes each, the Tigers kept rolling. Bringing the Clemson point total over 50 was Tavien Feaster, who scored his first career touchdown midway through the third quarter. Trevion Thompson also hauled in his first career touchdown in the third quarter on a seven-yard strike from Kelly Bryant. With Bryant's scoring pass, Saturday's game marked the first time three Tiger quarterbacks threw a touchdown pass in a game since Clemson's win over Presbyterian College in 2010.

GEORGIA TECH 7

SEPT. 22, 2016 • BOBBY DODD STADIUM • ATLANTA, GA.

Clemson snapped a five-game road losing streak in the series against Georgia Tech in a nationally televised Thursday night contest, as the Tiger defense was once again dominant against the Yellow Jackets' triple option attack in a 26-7 victory at Bobby Dodd Stadium. With the win, No. 3 Clemson moved to 4-0 on the season, 1-0 in the ACC. Tech fell to 3-1 overall, 0-1 in league play.

Brent Venables' stingy unit allowed only 22 yards of total offense in the opening half and 124 for the game. Offensively, the Tigers were efficient in the opening half behind the passing of Deshaun Watson, who was 32-48 for a season-high 304 yards and two touchdowns.

Clemson wasted no time in announcing its presence, as the Tigers put together a perfect 75-yard drive that ended with Mike Williams' first receiving touchdown of the season, a four-yarder from Watson. He marched Clemson into scoring position on its next two drives as well, the second of which ended with a Wayne Gallman one-yard plunge for a touchdown and a 14-0 score after a quarter.

The Tigers put together a great scoring chance late in the second quarter, but Watson was intercepted after a miscommunication with his receiver. Georgia Tech returned the ball two yards, but fumbled into the endzone and the play resulted in a safety for the Tigers. Following the free kick, Clemson took advantage by getting in Tech's redzone again. Watson threw a laser for a touchdown to Jordan Leggett, his first score of the 2016 season.

The Tigers' dominance was on display in the opening half. Clemson ran 56 total plays, compared to just 21 for Tech. The Yellow Jackets were stuffed for only 22 total yards, most of which came on the final play before halftime. Clemson owned a 325-yard advantage as well in the first 30 minutes of play.

The Jackets finally reached the scoring column in the fourth quarter, but Clemson answered with a career-long tying 47-yard field goal from Greg Huegel to close out the game's scoring.

LOUISVILLE

OCT. 1, 2016 • MEMORIAL STADIUM • CLEMSON, S.C.

Marcus Edmond tackled James Quick one yard shy of a first down at the three-yard line on fourth down with 33 seconds left in the game, as No. 3 Clemson held on for a thrilling 42-36 win over No. 3 Louisville at Memorial Stadium on Oct. 1, 2016.

Led by Deshaun Watson, who was 20-31 passing for 306 yards and five touchdowns, the Tigers came out on top of the back-and-forth matchup featuring electrifying offensive displays. Clemson also upped its home winning streak to 19, the longest active streak in the nation.

The Cardinals were the first to score, as Jeremy Smith capped an 82-yard drive with a one-yard touchdown run in the opening minute of the second quarter.

The remainder of the quarter was all Clemson, however, with the Tigers outscoring the Cardinals 28-3. Deon Cain made a big splash during that stretch, hauling in two touchdown receptions that covered 70 yards altogether.

Wayne Gallman, who had 110 rushing yards, sprinted into the endzone on a 24-yard run. Later in the quarter, Watson and Cain connected to put the Tigers up 21-7. Cain had four catches for 98 yards and two touchdowns.

The Cardinals added a field goal with under a minute to play in the half, but the Tigers were able to answer with a scoring drive in just 26 seconds. Advancing 73 yards in four plays, Clemson increased its lead to 28-10 on a five-yard touchdown pass from Watson to Artavis Scott.

Louisville outscored Clemson 16-0 in the third quarter, capitalizing on two Tiger turnovers. Following a Watson interception, Lamar Jackson connected with James Quick for an eight-yard touchdown.

The Cardinals pushed their run to 26-0 by scoring the first 10 points of the fourth quarter by way of a field goal and an 11-yard Jackson scamper into the endzone. In the wake of the score by Jackson, Scott provided the Tigers with good field position via a 77-yard kickoff return, then Watson found Mike Williams for a 20-yard touchdown.

The Tigers regained the lead on their next possession, as Watson finished off an 85-yard drive with a 31-yard touchdown pass to Jordan Leggett, who also hauled in a Watson pass for the succeeding two-point conversion.

Trailing 42-36 late in the game, the Cardinals marched down the field. But after a crucial pre-snap penalty on fourth-and-7, which made it fourth-and-12, Jackson connected with Quick near the sideline. An alert Edmond forced Quick out of bounds at the three, one yard shy of a first down.

BOSTON COLLEGE 10

OCT. 7, 2016 • ALUMNI STADIUM • CHESTNUT HILL, MASS.

Third-ranked Clemson followed up its big victory over Louisville with a convincing 56-10 win at Boston College in front of over 44,000 fans at Alumni Stadium on Oct. 7, 2016. The win moved the Tigers to 6-0 on the season, while dropping the Eagles to 3-3.

Deshaun Watson was brilliant for the Tigers, tossing four touchdown passes and directing a Tiger offense that finished one yard shy of 500 despite a lopsided margin in time of possession. Watson's favorite target was Deon Cain, who again caught two touchdowns for the Tigers. Wayne Gallman surpassed the century mark on the ground, despite only nine carries, in an efficient offensive effort. Gallman won the Leather Helmet Award following the contest, an award presented annually to the game's best player.

Clemson led 21-3 after a quarter of play, thanks to three explosive plays of at least 50 yards. Gallman burst through a hole, led by Watson's key block, en route to a 59-yard touchdown after the Tigers had surrendered a field goal on BC's second possession.

One drive later, the Tigers added another 50-yard play on a reception by Mike Williams. He followed with a touchdown a few plays later on a fade pass. Jordan

Leggett capped the quarter with a 56-yard reception and run.

Watson struck quickly after halftime, connecting with Cain on a pair of scores to push the lead to 35-3 midway through the third. The Tigers were on cruise control the rest of the half. Three quarterbacks played in the second half. Kelly Bryant directed a scoring drive when freshman Tavien Feaster burst through the left side for a 45-yard touchdown scamper. Clemson was not done, though, as Mark Fields jumped a BC pass the next possession for an interception and returned it for a touchdown to provide the final scoring margin.

NC STATE 17

OCT. 15, 2016 • MEMORIAL STADIUM • CLEMSON, S.C.

No. 3 Clemson, more specifically backup cornerback Marcus Edmond, did it again. For the second home game in a row, Edmond made the game-saving play, this time with his first career interception in the endzone in the first overtime in Clemson's 24-17 win over NC State (4-2, 1-1 ACC) at Memorial Stadium on Oct. 15, 2016.

Kyle Bamard's 33-yard field-goal attempt as time expired in regulation sailed wide right, keeping the hopes of Clemson alive. Artavis Scott's 10-yard receiving touchdown in overtime gave the Tigers a 24-17 lead, then on the Wolfpack's first play in overtime, Edmond ended the game with an interception in the endzone.

The Tigers, who overcame four turnovers and three trips inside the five yard line without scoring points, were led by Deshaun Watson. The junior was 39-52 passing for 378 yards and two touchdowns, and Mike Williams, Watson's top target, had 146 yards on 12 receptions.

The Tigers led 3-0 after the first quarter, with Greg Huegel converting a 25-yard field goal late in the first quarter. Earlier in the quarter, Wayne Gallman exited with a head injury and did not return.

With the score tied 3-3 late in the second quarter, Watson and the Tigers executed the two-minute drill to perfection, stringing together a 75-yard touchdown drive. Williams caught a touchdown pass for the fourth consecutive game, hauling in a 13-yard pass from Watson with 10 seconds left to put the Tigers ahead 10-3.

Mistakes proved costly for Clemson in the third quarter, with the Tigers turning it over three times on consecutive possessions. Mike Stevens intercepted a pass and raced 28 yards for a touchdown to tie the score 10-10. Later in the quarter, Clemson fumbled twice inside the five yard line.

Matthew Dayes plunged into the endzone for two-yard rushing touchdown with 11:29 left in the fourth quarter to tie the score. The Wolfpack drove down the field and milked the clock, setting up a 33-yard field-goal try by Bamard with two seconds on the clock. After a Tiger timeout, Bamard's kick missed by a few feet wide right.

In overtime, the Tigers moved to the one yard, but Watson was unable to hold on to the first-down snap and Clemson fell on the ball at the 10. On the next play, Watson connected with Scott for the go-ahead score.

NC State went for the endzone on its first play of overtime, but Edmond stepped in front the pass and hauled it in to send the Tiger faithful into a frenzy.

GAME 8

CLEMSON 37

FLORIDA STATE 34

OCT. 29, 2016 • DOAK CAMPBELL STADIUM • TALLAHASSEE, FLA.

No. 3 Clemson trailed Florida State 28-20 entering the fourth quarter, but showed its mettle late in a 37-34 come from behind win to stun the Seminoles in Doak Campbell Stadium on Oct. 29, 2016. Jordan Leggett provided the go-ahead touchdown with 2:06 remaining. It was Clemson's first win in Tallahassee since 2006, and only the second win for the Tiger program at Doak Campbell Stadium since the Seminoles joined the ACC.

Deshaun Watson was masterful in the fourth quarter after a pair of costly turnovers earlier in the game. The signal-caller finished 27-for-43 for 378 yards and two touchdowns, while adding 52 yards on the ground as well. Leggett produced a career-best 122 receiving yards, most in school history by a tight end.

The Tigers scored the first 14 points of the game, as Watson came out efficient, hitting nine of his first 10 passes. Following an opening drive score by Wayne Gallman, the Tigers again found paydirt when Watson connected with Hunter Renfrow for a four-yard touchdown. Renfrow finished the night with five catches for 62 yards.

But FSU would not go away, as it took advantage of the first Tiger interception in the second quarter when Watson's pass intended for Mike Williams got away.

Florida State cashed in with a touchdown, and narrowed the deficit to just three at the half (17-14) when Nyqwan Murray hauled in a five-yard touchdown from Deondre Francois with 23 seconds left before intermission.

Watson's second interception also turned into points. One play after jumping a route on the Tigers' signal-caller, Seminole star Dalvin Cook took a handoff to the right and raced 43 yards for the go-ahead touchdown. He added another, even longer at 70 yards, a couple of possessions later to give his team a 28-20 edge heading into the fourth quarter. Cook ended the game with 169 yards on 19 carries, with four touchdowns.

After the Tigers went ahead 29-28 on Greg Huegel's 46-yard field goal, FSU again answered with its ground attack. Cook posted his fourth touchdown scamper, an eight-yard gain over the right side. His score was set up by Freddie Stevenson's 38-yard rush into the redzone.

Clemson again was up to the challenge. Watson drove the Tigers into position and found Leggett on 3rd-and-5 for a conversion. One play later, he found his reliable tight end wide open, and he leapt through the air and across the goalline on a diving 34-yard touchdown reception, his fourth of the season.

NOV. 5, 2016 • MEMORIAL STADIUM • CLEMSON, S.C.

No. 2 Clemson scored double digits in all four quarters to shut out Syracuse 54-0 on Military Appreciation Day at Memorial Stadium on Saturday afternoon. The Tigers moved to 9-0 on the season and 6-0 in the ACC, while Syracuse fell to 4-5 overall and 2-3 in ACC play.

In the Tigers' most complete game of the season, both the offense and defense made an impact. With a 10-0 lead, Clemson scored 20 second-quarter points behind 330 yards of offense to pull away.

Deshaun Watson did his part when he found Deon Cain for a 65-yard touchdown pass early in the second quarter, the longest play of the season for the Tigers. From there, Clemson shared the wealth, with five other Tigers finding the endzone over the course of the game.

Mike Williams had six catches for 106 yards and a score, while Cain had five receptions for a game-high 125 yards and two touchdowns in the game.

Freshman safety Tanner Muse closed out the scoring with a 64-yard interception return for a touchdown off a deflected pass in the fourth quarter.

NOV. 12, 2016 • MEMORIAL STADIUM • CLEMSON, S.C.

Chris Blewitt's 48-yard field goal with six seconds left in the game lifted Pittsburgh to a 43-42 victory over No. 2 Clemson at Memorial Stadium on Nov. 12, 2016. The Panthers improved to 6-4 overall and 3-3 in the ACC, while the Tigers dropped their first regular-season game since 2014 and fell to 9-1 overall and 6-1 in ACC play.

The Tigers had a fourth-and-one with just over a minute left that would have sealed the game, but Wayne Gallman was stopped short in Pittsburgh territory. The Panthers drove down the field to set up Blewitt's game-winning field goal.

Deshaun Watson led the way with 580 passing yards on 52 completions, becoming the sixth player in ACC history with 10,000 career yards of total offense and the first to accomplish that feat as a junior. His passing yards and completions set Clemson single-game records, and the former set an ACC record. Mike Williams added 15 receptions for 202 yards.

The first quarter featured explosive offense from both teams, with Pittsburgh opening the scoring less than two minutes into the game with a 15-yard touchdown pass from Nathan Peterman to George Ashton. The score was the first touchdown Clemson had allowed in the first quarter in 2016. Peterman also connected with James Conner for a 46-yard score midway through the quarter. Both of Clemson's first-quarter touchdowns were one-yard runs by Gallman.

The momentum continued for the Tigers, as Clemson took its first lead of the game early in the second quarter on a 15-yard touchdown pass from Watson to Williams. Pittsburgh marched right back down the field to score on a 55-yard pass, but Chris Blewitt's extra-point attempt was blocked. Watson then fueled a 75-yard touchdown drive late in the second quarter, and Clemson took a 28-27 lead into halftime.

In the second half, Pittsburgh hung tight, as Clemson had an eight-point lead in the fourth quarter. With the Tigers ahead 42-34, Watson threw an interception in the endzone, and the Panthers capitalized with a touchdown. The two-point try was no good, as Clemson maintained a two-point lead.

CLEMSON WAKE FOREST GAME 11 35 13

NOV. 19, 2016 • BB&T FIELD • WINSTON-SALEM, N.C.

Wayne Gallman rushed for a season-high 161 yards and two touchdowns to lead No. 4 Clemson (10-1) to its second straight ACC Atlantic Division title with a 35-13 win over Wake Forest on Nov. 19, 2016. Wake Forest fell to 6-5 with the loss.

"We have always responded well from the few losses we've had," Dabo Swinney said. "I'm proud of a bunch of young men that came out and responded in a great way. This was our next goal, and we've got a chance to play for a second straight ACC title. We appreciate our fans for showing out here tonight. We'll enjoy this one and look forward to next week."

The Tigers finished a second straight campaign with an unblemished road record, due in large part to Gallman's effort. But he was not alone, as Deshaun Watson accounted for three touchdowns, one through the air and two on the ground. Clemson finished with 456 yards of total offense, showing great balance with 254 on the ground and 202 through the air.

For the fifth time this season, the Tigers scored 21 points in a quarter. The first-quarter flurry was sparked by Gallman's 42-yard touchdown on fourth and 1. Watson was sharp in the opening frame, hitting 11 of 14 passes for 114 yards and accounting for two scores in all. Clemson led 28-0 after scoring on each of its first four drives, but Wake Forest responded with 13 straight of its own in the second and third quarters.

After a scoreless third, the Tigers rebounded in the fourth. Jordan Leggett made a critical play on third-and-long, stretching for a first down after catching a pass from Watson in the flats. Gallman cashed in later in the drive from a yard out, his second score of the game, to push the lead to 35-13.

CLEMSON SOUTH CAROLINA GAME 12 56 7

NOV. 26, 2016 • MEMORIAL STADIUM • CLEMSON, S.C.

Deshaun Watson passed for six touchdowns, the most ever by a Tiger against South Carolina, in No. 3 Clemson's 56-7 victory over the Gamecocks at Memorial Stadium to close out the regular season. Clemson, who won its third game in a row over the Gamecocks, improved to 11-1, while South Carolina fell to 6-6.

Watson finished the game 26-32 passing for 347 yards, as his six touchdown passes tied a career high. Mike Williams was on the receiving end of three of those touchdown passes, ending with 100 yards on six receptions, all in the first half. Wayne Gallman fueled Clemson's run game with 112 yards and a touchdown on 19 carries, and the Tigers as a whole outgained the Gamecocks 622-218.

Clemson took the lead for good after a Jadar Johnson interception resulted in a 34-yard touchdown pass from Watson to Williams on the ensuing drive. Watson connected with Williams again later in the quarter for a 19-yard touchdown, marking the 100th career touchdown accounted for by Watson. Watson's 101st touchdown came one drive later on an 11-yard catch by Jordan Leggett that gave the Tigers a 21-0 lead after the first quarter.

The Tigers increased their lead to 28-0 with just over three minutes remaining in the first half on a Wayne Gallman eight-yard rush, and the halftime lead grew to 35-0 after a 39-second scoring drive in the final minute of the second quarter ended with a 16-yard touchdown pass from Watson to Williams.

The Gamecocks got on the board early in the third quarter when Deebo Samuel connected with Bryan Edwards for a 33-yard touchdown pass, but the momentum remained in the Tigers' favor for the rest of the game. C.J. Fuller, Artavis Scott and Kelly Bryant all found the endzone in the second half, cementing the Clemson victory.

CLEMSON

VIRGINIA TECH

DEC. 3, 2016 • CAMPING WORLD STADIUM • ORLANDO, FLA.

Deshaun Watson accounted for five touchdowns and Cordrea Tankersley ended a Virginia Tech threat with his second interception as the No. 3 Clemson Tigers handled the Hokies 42-35 to win the program's 16th ACC Championship at Camping World Stadium. Clemson moved to 12-1 with the win and earned a No. 2 ranking heading into the College Football Playoff.

Watson passed for 288 yards and three touchdowns, while adding 85 rushing yards and two more scores to collect Most Valuable Player honors. Tankersley's second interception came with Virginia Tech facing a 4th-and-6 and threatening in Clemson territory with less than 90 seconds to play.

Clemson wasted little time in building a 14-0 lead after two offensive possessions. Watson was sharp, completing his first 10 passes of the game and 19 straight dating to the South Carolina contest. He ran the first touchdown in and found a wide open Jordan Leggett for the second, pushing Clemson off to a fast start. Tech responded with a brilliant fake punt, which led to a one-yard touchdown run with 51 seconds left in the quarter.

The Hokies owned the second 15 minutes. Tech's biggest momentum shift occurred after Jerod Evans found a wide open Isaiah Ford down the Clemson sideline for a 53-yard gain. That led to an 11-yard touchdown run by Evans. Watson cooled a bit, connecting on only four of his next nine passes as Tech's defensive coordinator Bud Foster continued to bring pressure.

Momentum still seemed to favor VT when Watson threw an interception on Clemson's first possession after the half, but the defense stood strong. A third-down sack by Carlos Watkins gave the Tigers the ball right back, and Watson directed a strong 89-yard scoring drive that ended with an eight-yard Wayne Gallman touchdown.

Clemson held a 35-14 lead late in the third, but the Hokies stormed back behind more big plays offensively. A pair of scores on the ground pulled Tech within seven early in the fourth, but Hunter Renfrow came through on the ensuing drive with two huge plays. First, the sophomore wideout caught a brilliant 31-yard leaping catch on second-and-long. Then, he took a run-pass option in from 15 yards for Watson's fifth touchdown.

1978 GATOR BOWL CLEMSON 17 OHIO STATE 15

DEC. 29, 1978 • GATOR BOWL • JACKSONVILLE, FLA.

Danny Ford made his Clemson debut as head coach in grand style with a 17-15 victory over Ohio State and coaching legend Woody Hayes to close the 1978 season. The victory gave the Tigers an 11-1 final record, tying the school record (at the time) for victories in a season. With the win, Clemson finished tied for No. 6 in the coaches poll and No. 6 by AP.

Ford had been named head coach of the Tigers on December 10 after Charley Pell resigned as head coach to take the same position with the Florida program. Ford was just 30 years old at the time, the youngest head coach in the nation.

While Clemson had a young coach on the sideline, it had an old quarterback by college standards on the field. Steve Fuller, a third-team All-American and first-team Academic All-American, was in his fourth year as a starter and ran the offense efficiently. He ran a Tiger offense that had just one turnover in 80 plays.

Fuller engineered a 15-play, 80-yard drive and finished it off with a four-yard run to give Clemson a 7-3 lead in the second quarter. Ohio State freshman Art Schlichter guided the Buckeyes to a touchdown drive with just 1:21 left in the first half, but the extra point was blocked, making the score 9-7.

The Tigers drove downfield behind some Fuller passes to the Ohio State 30 and Obed Ariri kicked a 47-yard field goal to put Clemson up 10-9 at halftime.

Clemson scored the only points of the third quarter on a one-yard run by freshman Cliff Austin. It completed an 83-yard drive that took 18 plays.

With 8:11 left and Clemson holding a 17-9 lead, Schlichter scored his second touchdown of the game to bring Ohio State to within two points. Ohio State went for two, but Jim Stuckey tackled Schlichter on a quarterback sweep to prevent the score.

Ohio State got the ball back after a failed Tiger drive. Faced with a third-and-five at the Clemson 24, second-team middle guard Charlie Bauman intercepted Schlichter when he dropped into coverage. It was the only interception of Bauman's four-year career and the only turnover of the night for the Buckeye offense.

On the return, Bauman was run out-of-bounds in front of the Ohio State bench. There was a scuffle that involved Hayes, and consecutive unsportsmanlike conduct penalties were called on Ohio State, giving Clemson excellent field position. Clemson ran out the clock, giving the Tigers their first win over a Big Ten school.

Bubba Brown was the star of the Clemson defense with 22 tackles. Randy Scott added 16 tackles and Jim Stuckey had 11 to key the Clemson defense.

2014 ORANGE BOWL

CLEMSON 40

OHIO STATE 35

JAN. 3, 2014 • SUN LIFE STADIUM • MIAMI GARDENS, FLA.

Brent Venables bristled a bit earlier in the week when he was asked about the Orange Bowl against #6 Ohio State being billed as a shootout.

While the final score, 40-35 in favor of #11 Clemson, may have indicated that was the case, its defensive coordinator could smile afterward knowing his unit made the plays that were the difference.

The Tigers forced four second-half turnovers, including a fumble and interception on the Buckeyes' last two possessions, to rally from a halftime deficit for a BCS bowl win and a second-straight 11-win season, both firsts in school history.

"It means we're one step closer to our goal, which is to be the best in the country," said Head Coach Dabo Swinney. "Ohio State...what a great football team. You don't luck up and get to BCS games. You earn your way there. And you don't luck up and win them. You have to earn it on the field."

Stephone Anthony's interception with 1:18 left sealed the win after Clemson had turned the ball over on the previous possession to give Ohio State an opening. That came after a Spencer Shuey recovered fumble on the previous Buckeyes' drive that put the Tigers in the driver's seat.

"That was fun to watch," said Venables. "Just as you draw it up, those guys go out and execute it. To see those guys do that on back-to-back series, it was special."

It was not all defense for Clemson, as Sammy Watkins set Tiger and Orange Bowl records with 16 catches and 227 receiving yards to garner MVP honors, and Tajh Boyd accounted for 505 yards of total offense and six scores.

"The biggest thing going into this game was that we were going to win or lose the game through #10 (Watkins) or #2 (Boyd)," stated Swinney. "That was the plan."

Watkins, who had eight catches for 130 yards in the first half, passed Aaron Kelly to become the school's all-time leader in receptions with his first grab of the second half, which gave him 233 for his career.

"The offensive line and the coaches put me in the best situation to make plays," said Watkins. "I have been blessed with great coaches and a great quarterback the past three years. It's an honor to break all those records, but it's great to do it with the team and have success with the team."

For Boyd, he moved into a tie with Rodney Williams (1985-88) for most wins in school history by a starting quarterback with 32 and also set the record for most wins over top-25 ranked teams with eight, including five victories over top-10 foes.

"This is a very special night," stated Boyd. "Just the significance of the game, not for me, not for this team, but for the university, for the fans that support us day-in and day-out, has been unbelievable. It's a very special evening. I couldn't pick a better way to go out as a senior."

The first half had the feeling of missed opportunities for Clemson. In the second half, the Tigers made sure they did not miss another.

Despite outgaining Ohio State by 108 yards and largely dominating the game on both sides of the ball, the Tigers trailed at halftime 22-20.

That was thanks in part to an array of miscues that included an interception near the goal line, a turnover on downs that led to a touchdown, a Buckeye drive that was extended twice after Clemson forced fourth down, a safety for intentional grounding in the endzone, and a missed extra point.

But the Tigers cashed in on two third-quarter turnovers by the Buckeyes, as Watkins and Martavis Bryant made acrobatic catches in the endzone to put Clemson on top entering the fourth quarter.

Stanton Seckinger put Clemson ahead for good with a five-yard catch from Boyd with 6:16 left in the game, and Shuey and Anthony's takeaways finished Ohio State off.

"We had enough mistakes to probably lose it, but our guys showed a lot of heart and they got it done," said Swinney. "So it's another tombstone going back to Clemson, and we're excited about that."

Things looked bleak for the Tigers after Ohio State stretched its lead to 29-20 and got another stop on third down to open the second half.

Clemson finally got the break it had been so desperately seeking after its offense had been forced to punt on the next drive, as Corey Brown muffed a punt and Robert Smith was there to recover the loose ball at the Ohio State 33.

"The spark was the punt return fumble," explained Swinney. "We were down. We were -1 in the turnover margin, and that was a huge thing. When we win the turnover margin, we win. That's just the way it is for us."

The Tigers cashed in three plays later, as Watkins went up and made an acrobatic catch in the endzone for a 30-yard touchdown that narrowed Ohio State's lead to 29-27. Watkins tied Clemson's career record for touchdown catches with his 27th on the play.

The Tiger defense kept the momentum going on the ensuing drive. On third-and-eight, pressure flushed Braxton Miller out of the pocket and his pass to the sideline was intercepted by Jayron Kearsse to give Clemson the ball at the Ohio State 38.

Four plays later, Boyd and Bryant hooked up on a fade route again, as Bryant hauled in a juggling catch in the corner of the endzone to put the Tigers back on top 34-29 with 32 seconds left in the third quarter.

The Buckeyes regained the lead on a 14-yard pass from Miller to Carlos Hyde to make the score 35-34 with 11:35 left in the game.

The Tigers went back in front on a five-yard grab by Seckinger, who Boyd found wide open for the touchdown. The score put Clemson on top 40-35 with 6:16 remaining.

With the Buckeyes facing third-and-13 on the ensuing drive, Breeland crashed in on a corner blitz and hit Miller, the ball popped loose, and Shuey snatched it out of the air at the Ohio State 47.

The Tigers gave the ball right back, as Ohio State came up with an interception three plays later, but Anthony picked Miller off two plays later to get the ball back for Clemson and seal the win.
